6 Western Philosophies
What are Clemson Head Coach Tommy West's views on a college football playoff, the polls or coaching in the nineties? Turn to this two-page interview and you will learn more about Clemson's head coach than just Xs and 0s.

49 Rick Stockstill
Wide receivers coach Rick Stockstill is in a year of change. A new boss, a new position to coach, which means many new players...and an addition to his family.

51 Stephon Wynn
Clemson tight end Stephon Wynn has made quite a comeback over the last two years. After missing 1992 due to an abdominal injury suffered while trying to help a friend, Wynn is a mainstay at the tight end position.

61 Rule Changes
Every year college football rule makers issue some changes in the game. This year the committee did not tinker with the game itself from a strategy standpoint, but it did issue some ultimatims in regards to altercations, pregame and during competition.

76 Men's Soccer
The Clemson men's soccer program has been among the best in the nation for many years and this year won't be any different. If the Tigers can improve over last year defensively, Coach I. M. Ibrahim's team could challenge for the national championship.

77 Women's Soccer
The new sport on the block in the Clemson program is women's soccer. Tracey Leone's Lady Tiger team starts its inaugural season tomorrow at North Carolina....the defending national champion.

78 Preseason Honors
Clemson linebackers have been ranked among the best in the nation for the last decade or so. Page 78 will tell you how they rank this year and what Tigers are rated among the best in the nation heading into the 1994 season.

79 Levon Kirkland
This week's feature on a former Tiger in the NFL reviews the career of Levon Kirkland. The native of Lamar, SC was not even all-state in high school. Now he is starting for the Pittsburgh Steelers and was the club's second leading tackler in 1993.

109 Ed Glenn
Chances are this Tiger tight end won't average more receptions per game than his grade point average. In fact, there won't be many tight ends in the ACC who will average more than 3.9 receptions per game. Ed Glenn, who has six career 4.0 semesters, hopes to become a surgeon after his playing days are over.

It may be his first game as a head coach in Death Valley, but he certainly knows his way around Howard's Rock and has a keen understanding of Clemson Traditions. Clemson Opens 99th Season

Clemson opens its 99th season of football against its oldest sports rival when the Tigers meet Furman today. Clemson defeated the Paladins on Halloween Day of 1896 by a score of 14-6. The game was played in Greenville. The Clemson team had been practicing on a 200X 50 foot field at Clemson and when they went to the game in Greenville it was the first time many of the Clemson players had seen a regulation field, never mind played on one. Charlie Gentry scored Clemson's first touchdown in the Tiger victory.

Clemson has a rich tradition in football. Here are some items on the Clemson program heading into the 1994 season:

*An overall home record of 255-90-15, a 73 percent winning mark. Clemson has won 49 percent of its games on the road (218-227-24) and 57 percent on neutral sites (53-39-6).

*Won more ACC titles than any other school with 13, and that includes one co-championship in 1965. Including its years in the Southern Conference, Clemson has won 15 conference championships.

*Has been to 19 bowl games over the years and has 12 victories in those games. The .633 winning percentage is eighth best in NCAA history among programs with at least 15 bowl appearances.

*Has had 19 seasons in which it has been ranked in the final Associated Press Top 25, including seven of the last eight seasons.

*Has had 16 first-round draft picks over the years dating back to 1939 when Banks McFadden was the number-three pick of the entire draft by the Brooklyn Dodgers.

*Has appeared on regional or national TV 125 times over the years, including 59 times over the last eight years.

*Has had 43 different players who have been honored as first, second or third-team All-American over the years. This includes 11 players who have been named All-American at least two years and one, William Perry, who was honored in three different seasons.

*Boasts of three different coaches, John Heisman, Jess Neely and Frank Howard, who are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Furman Program Outstanding

While Clemson has won more ACC Championships than any other school, Furman has won more Southern Conference titles than any other school. The Paladins won the Southern Conference nine times (all since 1978), the top figure in the league. Furman has an overall record of 440-351-38 over the years. Its program began in 1889, seven years before Clemson started its football program.

Tigers Face Clemson Grad

Clemson did not face an opponent coached by a Clemson grad in the first 51 years (1942-92) of Memorial Stadium. N.C. State coach Mike O'Cain broke that streak when he brought his Wolfpack team to Death Valley last year. Now, in 1994, the first two teams that will roll into Death Valley will be coached by Clemson graduates. Furman's Bobby Johnson, a member of Clemson's staff in 1993, is a 1973 Clemson graduate. O'Cain has a return engagement in Death Valley next week.

Johnson was a three-year letterman for the Tigers in 1970-71-72 and was a two-time All-ACC Academic choice. He led the Tigers in interceptions in 1971 and 1972. He went on to coach Furman as a defensive back coach and defensive coordinator for 18 years before moving to Clemson as defensive coordinator last year. It certainly puts an interesting wrinkle into today's game as Johnson certainly will have a thorough knowledge of the Tigers veteran personnel. That defense ranked in the top 15 in the nation in scoring defense in 1993.

Young is the only returning offensive line starter. His name also describes Clemson's offense, which does not have a starting senior in the opener for the first time since 1980.

Furman Scouting Report

Offensively, Furman is led by senior quarterback Philly Jones, who returns for his third season of starting duty following a 1993 campaign that saw him throw for 1606 yards and nine scores. The 3.9 student had an efficiency rating of 131.5 last year, one of the top figures in Division I-AA. His chief target is senior Ric Ford, who had 33 catches for 504 yards and five scores.

The Furman backfield features tailback Leonardo McClarty, who had 360 yards and three scores last year. He started the last four games of 1993. Furman's offensive line should be the strength of the entire team. The leader is junior tackle Brian Fisher, a native of Belton, SC, who can bench press 420 pounds, nearly 200 pounds more than his weight.

Defensively, the Paladins are led by senior tackle Rodger Colvin, who had 46 tackles last year, and senior nose guard Jim Miller, who had 41 stops. At linebacker, the Paladins will likely due without veteran Clayton Gibson against Clemson. Gibson, who tallied 150 tackles last year before being sidelined with a knee injury, has not been cleared for full contact and appears to be doubtful for the Clemson game. Mark Tate is the top secondary player, as he had 84 tackles and three interceptions in 1993.

This could be an outstanding battle of kickers. Clemson has Nelson Welch, an All-ACC player each of the last three years, and Furman features Jim Richter, who hit 13-17 field goals and earned All-Southern Conference honors last year.

Clemson Scouting Report

In many ways, this is the youngest Clemson team in 50 years. In 1943 World War II wiped out Clemson's entire junior class, so that 1944 team didn't have any seniors. The 1994 Tigers have only 10 seniors on the squad, none on the first-team offense. Clemson has not opened a season without a senior in its opening day offensive lineup since 1980.

The Clemson offense has a varied look this year, as Tommy West has shown a willingness to use a shotgun and a one-back formation. In a recent scrimmage Clemson lined up in either of those formations 24 of 82 plays. The offense is led by quarterback Patrick Sapp, a junior who has started off and on over the last two years. Sapp, a native of Jacksonville, FL, is number-one in Clemson history in pass interception avoidance. He completed 66-133 for 1084 yards and four TDs last year. He completed 17-25 for 192 yards and no interceptions in three preseason scrimmages.

The talk of the preseason has been the tailback position, year in and year out the marquee offensive position in the Clemson lineup. For the first time since 1973 (Ken Callicutt), Clemson will start a first-year freshman at tailback. But, who will it be? The candidates are Anthony Downs, a 6-1, 200-pound native of Greenville, SC, James Jenkins, a 6-1, 210 pound native of Hammonton, NJ, and Lamont Pegues, a 5-11, 200 pounder from Thomasville, NC. Raymond Priester, a 6-1, 210 pounder from Allendale, SC, was moved from tailback to fullback on August 27.

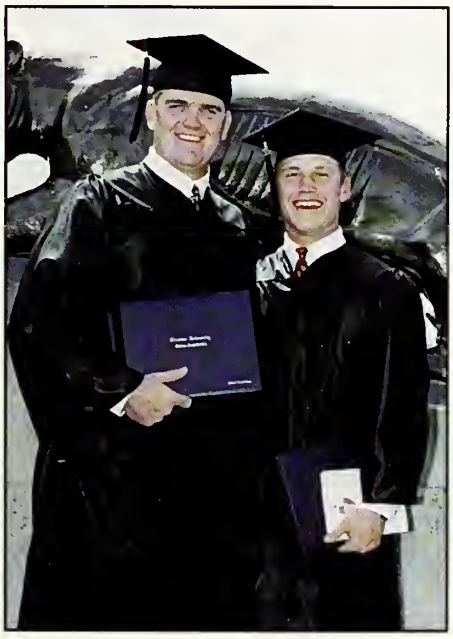
The defense will be the strength of the 1994 Tigers. A look to the depth chart reveals that every position has at least two players with at least one varsity letter. Juniors and seniors hold down all but one of the starting positions on defense. Eight starters return from last year's defense that allowed only three teams to score as many as 20 points. Three of the top four tacklers are back, led by Tim Jones (109), Wardell Rouse (78) and Andre Humphrey (74). Clemson's linebackers are ranked third best in the nation by the Sporting News preseason issue and the Tigers secondary is ranked seventh best in the country by Sporting News.

West Faces Furman...Again

This will be Tommy West's 13th game as a head coach, but it will already be the second time he has faced Furman. In fact, it will be the second straight regular season game he has faced the Paladins, as Furman was the opposition in his last game at UT-Chattanooga. If today's game is as exciting as the 1993 season finale, fans are in for a thrilling day of football.

UT-Chattanooga team downed Furman, 45-42 at Chattanooga's Chamberlain Field. West has said all along that he strives for an offense that is balanced in terms of yardage. A look to that game with Furman shows us what he is talking about. On that November 20th afternoon UT-Chattanooga had 256 yards passing and 254 yards rushing for a 510 total. You can't get much more balanced than that. Runningback Jerry Ellison, now with the Tampa Bay Bucs, had 205 yards rushing to lead the UT-Chattanooga attack. The Mocs hit 16-22 passes on the day and the offense did not have a turnover.

One other bit of irony about West and his first game deals with Furman as the opponent. Danny Ford, West's boss between 1982-89 when he was Clemson's outside linebacker coach, faced Furman in a game at Death Valley in his first regular season game as Clemson coach. Like West, Ford also had taken over for the bowl game the previous year. Ford beat Ohio State by two points in the 1978 Gator Bowl in his first game as head coach, West defeated Kentucky by one point in the 1993 Peach Bowl in his first game.



Kunz and Welch will play 1994 as graduate students.

Coaches' Comments

Tommy West Comments

"Furman has an outstanding program, one with a lot of character. They have been giant killers in the past beating South Carolina, Georgia Tech and some others. They have done it with hard work and a first-class program. With Bobby Johnson that will continue.

"It will be an interesting game in many ways. I think Bobby Johnson has somewhat of an advantage in that he is very familiar with our personnel, especially on defense, since he was the coordinator last year. On the other hand, we have a new staff and he is not sure what we will do, especially on offense.

"The game against Furman I was involved with last year was an offensive shootout (45-42). It was just one of those up and down games. Both teams had it going offensively. We had 510 yards in that game and it was just about evenly divided. We got hot throwing the ball first, then our running game opened up.

"This year we have to feel we are the bigger team going in so we will try to line up and run the ball with success.

"Philly Jones is back for them and he is an outstanding player. I have known him for a long time. He is a coach's son and is a very smart player. He is an option quarterback who won't make mistakes that will beat them. Braniff Bonaventure is an outstanding passer, he is their throwing guy, so we will have to prepare for both of them.

"Because they have the same coaching staff with the exception of the head coach, I would expect to see the same type of Furman team.

"The Southern Conference is the best Division I-AA conference in the country and it is comparable to the Mid-American and the Big West, two Division I conferences. The Southern Conference has done well against the Division I schools. Southern Conference players work just as hard as our players and they are good football players. "

Bobby Johnson Comments

"Clemson is one of the most respected programs in the country, and it is an honor to play them. They obviously have very talented players, so we must execute at our very best to have a chance to win.

"Players like Tim Jones, Andre Humphrey, Brian Dawkins and Antwuan Wyatt are not only talented, but they also have great desire and drive to excel. We will not know what to expect from them offensively or defensively because of the new staff. This is a great concern of ours. We have always been a team that tries to take advantage of tendencies. They have none."

Ring of Honor Opens Today

Clemson will unveil its Ring of Honor in Memorial Stadium during pregame ceremonies Saturday. Three former Clemson greats, Steve Fuller, Banks McFadden and Frank Howard, will be inducted into the Ring of Honor as charter members. The jersey numbers of Fuller (4) and McFadden (66) will be posted on a facade at Memorial Stadium, while a replica of Frank Howard's hat will be mounted at the area.

Fuller's number-four and McFadden's number-66 are permanently retired by the Clemson Athletic Department. However, in the future Clemson will retire the jersey, not the number. "There are a tremendous amount of former Clemson greats and it will be difficult to decide which individuals should be displayed in the Ring of Honor," said Athletic Director Bobby Robinson. "With this in mind, we have established a committee charged with the task of nominating and selecting future recipients."

The selections will be based on accomplishments on and off the field occurring during their Clemson years. The player must hold a baccalaureate degree.

Welch, Kunz Earn Degrees

Two Tigers have already earned their undergraduate degrees. Both placekicker Nelson Welch and offensive lineman Mike Kunz earned their degrees on the second Friday in August and will be graduate students while playing with the Clemson football team this year. Welch earned his degree in marketing, while Kunz earned his degree in management.

Welch is nearing the Clemson and ACC records for field goals in a career. He enters the Furman game with 54 career field goals, just six away from the ACC record of 60 held by Jess Atkinson of Maryland, Obed Ariri of Clemson and Scott Sisson of Georgia Tech. The Clemson record of 63 is held by Ariri and Chris Gardocki. Clemson records count bowl competition, while ACC records do not.

West Show TV Schedule

Clemson in Openers

Clemson has been very successful in season openers over the years, posting a record of 73-17-8 for the previous 98 years of Tiger football. Clemson last lost a season opener in 1986 when Virginia Tech downed the Tigers 20-14 in Death Valley. Clemson has won 14 of its last 16 openers and nine of the last 10. In the last seven openers Clemson has outscored the opposition by a combined score of 254-31.

Tommy West Comments

Tommy West will run down the hill for only the second time in his career as a Clemson coach when the Tigers face Furman Today.

What are the selling points of the Clemson program?

"The Clemson people are the number-one selling point of our program. That includes everyone from the school president to athletic director Bobby Robinson through our supporters and the student body.

"Bobby Robinson certainly gives us the opportunity to be a first-class organization. Financially, we have the money to do what is necessary for our student-athletes to be successful in every phase athletically and academically.

"We have a great winning tradition and we have great traditions at Clemson. We have won a national championship, have more league championships and top 25 seasons than any program in our league. We also have the great traditions of running down the hill, Howard's Rock, Tigerama etc. Gameday at Clemson typifies the color and pageantry of college football."

What are the long term goals of this program?

"We would like to be a program that plays on New Year's Day consistently. We don't want to be a real good team one out of five years, we want to be considered a team that will be playing on New Year's Day every year. The key to doing that is playing consistently throughout the season."

How Important is discipline?

"Discipline is by far the most important aspect of any program. Discipline is not punishment. Discipline means you care, it teaches you to be successful. Discipline is going to class, time management, reliability, being there when you are suppose to.

"Discipline is love and love is discipline. We are going to go to study hall on time and we are going to behave ourselves off the field. If you are disciplined off the field it will carry over on to the field. We want a first class program. First class, that has been the theme of our preseason and it is going to be our theme all season and as long as I am the coach at Clemson."

Would you be in favor of a college football playoff?

"I'm not totally against a football playoff. I love the bowl games and the bowl system. There are some problems with the bowl structure right now. I don't think we should have 15 games in three days or six games going on at the same time.

"The big question is what is best for college football. Is a playoff best for college football, or is it best for the top four or five programs? I am not for an eight-team playoff at the end of the year and everyone else stay home.

"I like the bowl structure, even though there are some controversies at the end of the year. Basketball is different because they can play four times in 11 days. But, at the end of the year there is just one winner.

"Look at our baseball team. Last year Clemson won 57 games, more than any team in the country, won the ACC and had 19 wins over ranked teams. But, they lost their last game, like 47 other teams did in the tournament.

"We had a lot of excitement around Clemson after our bowl victory. Until somebody can come up with a formula and show everybody that their system is better than the bowl games, then I'm in favor of our bowl structure. It's not all bad having 19 winners at the end of the season."

What is the difference between coaching in the 80s and the 90s?

"I don't think the Xs and Os have changed that much. There are fads from time to time, but I am a fundamentalist. There are aspects of football that are keys to being successful every year.

"The biggest change around college football is outside of the game. The media is different, everything is on the highlight shows and in the newspaper. This leads to a coach's accountability in all phases of his program. Coaches are accountable 24 hours a day, seven days a week, even when the student-athlete is home on vacation.

"The recruiting game has changed. It is a spectator sport in terms of the media, and the rules have changed quite a bit. You can't contact a recruit nearly as often, or can't send him as much material. We used to do that better than any school, but that comparative advantage has been taken away.

"As far as the game itself is concerned, I think you have to be more balanced on offense. The, tough, hard-nozed football teams are going to win. There are fly-by-night offenses and defense that come and go. Teams that can run the ball have a chance to be successful, but you have to be able to throw it effectively to win championships. You win with great defense also. I don't think the game has changed all that much."

What coaches had a big influence on you in your youth?

"I've learned from every coach I've played and worked for. I probably had the greatest Little League baseball coach ever in a guy named Ted Ivey. I was blessed to have grown up in Gainesville, GA, it was a great community where we had good coaches. There was a lot of emphasis on sports in Gainesville, but they had things in perspective. I also had a lot of respect for Coach Bobby Gruhn (high school football coach). I've known him for 20 years and he has been a big influence on me."

Who are some athletes you admire?

"The guy I have a lot of respect for is Nolan Ryan. He stood the test of time. I admire people who can be successful for more than one or two years. Jack Nicklaus was 46 when he won the Masters, Arnold Palmer was competitive for 30 years and Mohammed Ali was a great champion for many years.

"The thing about Nolan Ryan was his work ethic. He thought about baseball 365 days a year, he had to to pitch that long at that level. "

What were you like as a kid?

"When I was growing up I thought about sports everyday. It depended on what time of the year it was, whatever was in season, that is what I played. If it was baseball season I played baseball, if it was basketball season I played basketball and so one. Today it seems there is more for kids to do, so they don't play the game as much. Maybe the stakes are higher because there are billions of dollars involved, but to me it was a game when I was growing up and it is still a game."

How important is it to have fun playing football?

"We want to have a good time playing this game. We are going to play as hard as we can, but we are going to enjoy it. I want players who enjoy practicing and playing the game. Sometimes people think when you say we're going to have a good time we aren't serious. We are intense about winning and losing, all those things are important, but I want my players to leave Clemson with a fulfilled feeling about their experience at Clemson."

How tough was your preseason camp?

"I've had some people tell me it was the toughest camp they have seen at Clemson.We did what we thought was best for this Clemson team. We went three-a-days for nearly every day. We wanted this team in condition and I think this team is in good condition.

"With the scholarship reductions you have to be in good shape, you just don't have as many players. When the camp ended a couple of Wednesdays ago that team felt like they had accomplished something. They showed great spirit at the end of that scrimmage. I think it brought the team closer together."

Did it take you a long time to decide to come back to Clemson?

"Not at all! Clemson is certainly a special place to me. Lindsay and I started our married life here, our first eight years together were spent in Clemson. There couldn't be a better place for me. There was no decision involved. When you work at a place for eight years and you really enjoy the people and the environment, it makes an impression on you. There is just something special about Clemson."

What will be this team's style on defense?

"Number-one, we want to be consistent. I know I keep saying that, but that is important, to be consistent every day. We want players on defense who want you to put the ball down and play. If our offense turns the ball over, I don't want a defense that sulks. Its another opportunity for us to go out and play.

"I don't think the right word is arrogance, we just want defensive players who really want to compete and like playing. We want an aggressive defense, one that gets 11 guys to the ball.

Do you have specific goals for this team, like gaining 400 yards a game on offense, or holding the opposition to less than 200 a game on defense?

"No, I'm against setting those kinds of goals. A team can gain 400 yards, turn it over three times and lose. I am more goal oriented about things like attitude. We want to develop an attitude where the players can't wait for Saturday to get here. We have a goal of having a team that wants to play hard every week, no matter who the opposition is. We want players who will play hard even if the scoreboard is not there and the stands are empty.

"I would also say that one of our goals is to improve from week to week over the course of the season. If we do that the rest will take care of itself.

"I am not a stat guy, but I do believe in the turnover margin numbers. Nine out of 10 times you win a game in which you commit fewer turnovers. In general stats are for losers. A lot of times coaches go back and use stats to justify losing.

"We just have a goal of staying in the game for four quarters, just like we did in the Peach Bowl.

Are you a coach who worries about the polls?

"I don't follow the polls much during the season, but I certainly will at the end. We have to worry about our football team, worry about our team improving from week to week. When you start getting all caught up in the polls you lose track of being concerned about your team's week to week improvement. Just do your job and the polls will take care of themselves."

When did you first think about being a coach?

"The first time I thought about going into coaching was when I was being recruited. No one really asked me about what I wanted to do after I finished playing until the recruiting process. When you are in high school you think you will play forever. I love the competition, I love the college atmosphere. I can't see myself in any other field right now."

Does your experience as a Division I player at Tennessee help you coach Division I players today?

"I don't think you have to play at a major college to be a good coach. Having played at a major college allowed me to associate with outstanding coaches, but my personal opinion is that there are more outstanding high school coaches than there are college coaches. We spend a lot of time with high school coaches in the recruiting process and we run into some outstanding people. I have a lot of respect for high school coaches, especially the ones in this area."

Where does the Peach Bowl victory rank in your athletic accomplishments?

"That was a night I will never forget. That win means a lot to me. The game was very important to our fans, the team, everyone involved. And, to win the way we did with a comeback in the last minute of play, was just outstanding. A lot of credit has to go to our coaches and players, especially the seniors. It was quite an accomplishment considering we were coaching players for the first time all year."

What is it like to run down the hill?

"I am really looking forward to it this fall. I've only done it just one time (worked from the press box most of the time), the Georgia game of 1985. I got to the top of the hill and I got excited, too excited. Coach (Danny) Ford grabbed me by the arm to settle me down. I'll have to settle myself down before that Furman game, or I might be the first coach to fall down the hill. I'm excited, I can't wait to get to the top of the hill on September 3."

What would be your SportsCenter highlight?

"My SportsCenter highlight goes like this. I'm trailing Greg Norman by one shot as I go to the 18th tee at Augusta National. I rip my drive, but it goes into the bunker on the left side of the fairway. Then, I hit a one-iron out of the bunker and into the hole for an eagle and win the Master's by a shot."

How does your wife and son help you through the season?

"Lindsay is great, she is so understanding of what is involved in this profession. I can't remember one time that she has said, 'do you have to go'. She knows what is involved in being a successful football coach. When you are in this business you realize you are not going to have quantity time with your family so you must have quality. We certainly try to do that.

"Turner helps put things in perspective. Whether you come back after a win or a loss, he doesn't care, he just wants you to look at his baseball cards. This job can consume you. My family helps me stop and smell the roses when something good happens. You need to do that. You prepare 12 months of the year for 12 football games and if you don't stop once in a while, the enjoyable part will pass right by you."

Who is the most impressive person you know?

"I would have to say my dad. My dad has tremendous poise in every respect. He never shows when he is mad. I've always respected him. He's a great people person."

Phil Prince

A funny thing happened to Phil Prince last June 9th when he was coming to Clemson from his home in Mt. Pleasant for the 45th reunion of the Class of '49, of which he is the president.

He, traveling with his wife Celeste, had to stop in Columbia for a meeting of the Clemson Board of Trustees. Prince entered the room as a life member of the board and came out as acting president of Clemson University.

Prince will serve as university head until a permanent successor is appointed to succeed Dr. Max Lennon, who resigned in February, then accepted the position as president of Eastern Foods., Inc., of Atlanta the first week of June.

The 68-year-old Prince, who retired in 1983 as senior vice president of American Express, found out that news doesn't always spread like wild fire.

The day after his appointment as acting president, he stopped for some gas at a service station in Clemson. While he was inside paying for his purchase, a woman drove up to the tank behind Prince's car.

Noticing his auto tag which said "Clemson University Trustee" the lady asked Prince when he returned to his car:

"You guys appointed anybody yet?"

Prince answered: "You're looking at him."

Born in Bostic, NC (August 4, 1926), Prince spent most of his young life in Erwin, TN, where his father was a railroad conductor. He first heard of Clemson from George Fritts, a member of the 1940 Cotton Bowl team, but at that time, a line coach at Clemson. Prince was also being recruited by Tennessee and N. C. State.

He first lettered in 1944, and the second game of the season was against Georgia Tech in Atlanta. For the trip, Prince came dressed in a pair of overalls and Coach Frank Howard asked about his attire. Prince replied that was saving his only pair of slacks to wear after arriving in Atlanta.

But things would get better, even before leaving Clemson.

Returning in 1946 after a stint in service, that season and the next one were on the losing side (4-5 each time). But the Tigers hit the jackpot in 1948 when Prince and Bob Martin were co-captains, undefeated in the regular season (10-0), Southern Conference champions (5-0), ranked 11th in the nation and champions of the Gator Bowl with a 24-23 win over Missouri.

Acting President Phil Prince was a starter on Clemson's undefeated 1948 team.

Prince made one of the biggest plays of his career against South Carolina that season. Trailing 7-6 with less than two minutes to play, the story goes that a man stood up in the stands and waved a $100 bill and said: "I bet Clemson scores on the next play," and Tigers didn't even have the ball.

On the next play Prince broke through and blocked a punt. Oscar "Rabbit" Thompson scooped up the ball and ran it in for a score and a 13-7 Clemson win. That success story was followed by many more by Prince.

He rose through the ranks of Milliken and Company over nearly a 30-year period to become vice president for personnel and management development before going with American Express in 1978.

In addition to his past service on the Board of Trustess since 1989, Prince has served Clemson as a member of the Alumni National Council and as a former president of the Clemson University Foundation Board of Directors. He chaired the Campaign for Clemson fund-raising drive and was a major donor to that effort. He and his wife established the Prince Presidential Scholars Endowment for academic recruiting scholarships. They have also contributed a life scholarship to the Clemson Athletic Department.

Prince is a recipient of the Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Award and the first President's Award, which recognizes outstanding service to the university. He was also presented the Clemson Medallion, the university's highest honor, in 1989. During his tenure as acting president, Prince plans to return his earnings to the school as a personal contribution to the Clemson University Foundation.

Philip Hunter Prince and Celeste Orr Prince are parents of two sons, Kevin and Jim. They also have two grandsons—the reason for moving from Pawleys Island to Mt. Pleasant. On the night he was named acting president, Prince called the four-year-old grandson, Philip Hunter Prince, II, to say that he was going to move away (to Clemson) for awhile. "I don't want you to move, grandpa," Philip said.

In the background, Prince heard his son, Jim, tell Philip: "Tell grandpapa how proud you are of him." To which Philip replied: "I'm not."

Sorry young Philip, but you're greatly outnumbered.

Phil Prince became Clemson's Acting President last Summer. The former Tiger gridder won the Clemson Medallion in 1989.

Head Coach Tommy West

Tommy West, a mainstay of a Clemson coaching staff that led the Tigers to a 69-20-4 record and six Associated Press Top 20 finishes between 1982-89, was named the Tigers Head Football Coach on November 29, 1993. During his first tour of duty with the Tigers as an outside linebacker coach, Clemson played in five bowl games (winning four) and claimed four ACC Championships, including three in a row from 1986-88.

Clemson had a 44-10-1 record against ACC competition during his era on the Tiger staff, an 81 percent winning mark. Additionally, five of those Clemson teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation in rushing defense and scoring defense, and three ranked in the top 12 in the nation in total defense.

Clemson's 1989 defense ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense and West's outside linebackers had a lot to do with that success. His top four outside linebackers that year are all currently in the NFL.

Levon Kirkland (Pittsburgh Steelers), Wayne Simmons (Green Bay Packers) and John Johnson (Cincinnati Bengals) are all currently starters in the NFL, and Ashley Sheppard (Minnesota Vikings) is a top reserve. Simmons was a first-round draft pick, Kirkland and Johnson second-round selections and Sheppard was a fourth-round choice. In addition to the four players listed above, Andy Headen (New York Giants) and Terence Mack (St. Louis Cardinals) are former Tigers West helped guide to an NFL career.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee (his alma mater) in 1977. He coached one year of high school football at White County High in Sparta, TN in 1978, then became an assistant at Mississippi in 1979. For the 1980 and 1981 seasons he served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State.

Three players who were coached by West during his first season at Clemson were NFL starters last season.

After his career at Clemson (1982-89), West became the running backs coach at Tennessee. During that 1990 season Tennessee won the Southeastern Conference and captured the Sugar Bowl with a win over Virginia. The Volunteers scored a school record 442 points that year and averaged over 400 yards a game in total offense, 205.7 rushing and 205.4 passing. He served as Co-Defensive Coordinator at South Carolina in 1991 and 1992.

In 1993 West began his college head coaching career, as he took over a UT-Chattanooga team that had won just two games in 1992. He doubled that total in 1993 and guided the Mocs to one of the landmark wins in school history, a 33-31 win over #1 ranked Marshall. He concluded the regular season with a 45-42 victory over Furman, ironically, his first regular season opponent as Clemson coach.

His first game as head coach of the Tigers was in the Peach Bowl against Kentucky. West became the fifth coach in NCAA history to make his debut with a program in a bowl game. However, he was just the second coach in history to make his debut in a bowl game without previously coaching his new team as an assistant coach earlier in the season.

The debut was a rousing success as his Tigers downed the Wildcats 14-13 at the Georgia Dome. The Tigers drove 83 yards for the winning touchdown on their last possession. Patrick Sapp hit Terry Smith from 21 yards out with 20 seconds left to conclude the closest game of the 1993-94 bowl season. It was the latest winning touchdown drive by a Clemson team since 1958.

West earned three letters in his four-year career at Tennessee (1972-75). The Vols played in three bowl games and were ranked in a final Top 20 in three seasons. He was the co-captain of Tennessee's 1975 football team and played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game that same year.

He began his college career as a running back, but saw most of his playing time as a tight end. He caught 37 passes for 575 yards in his career with the Vols, including 16 passes for 233 yards as a senior. As a junior he caught an 81-yard pass from Condredge Holloway, still the longest non-scoring play in Tennessee history. He earned a bachelor's degree from Tennessee in 1976 and was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers that same year.

Clemson played in five bowls and won four ACC titles during West's first tour of duty with the Tigers.

West played two years (1974-75) of baseball at Tennessee and had a career batting average of .305. He hit .367 in 1975 and was named All-SEC Eastern Division. Rick Honeycutt, now with the Oakland A's, was a teammate of West on that 1975 Tennessee team that finished 32-16.

West was a multi-sport standout in high school. He was an outfielder in baseball, a guard in basketball and a running back in football. In 1972 he was named a High School All-American in football and was a fifth-round draft choice in baseball by the Chicago Cubs. Willie Randolph, who went on to an all-Star career with the New York Yankees, was one of 77 future Major League players drafted after West in the regular phase of the June 1972 draft. But West turned down the Cubs offers and went to Tennessee. He played his prep football at Gainesville High in Gainesville, GA for Coach Bobby Gruhn. He was an all-state back as a junior and was also named to the All-Southern team.

Born Thomas Cleveland West on July 31, 1954, he is married to the former Lindsay Watkins of Forest City, NC. The couple has one son, Turner, 5.

YOUR UNUSED TICKETS COULD HELP ERIC TACKLE THE BOOKS.

Eric attends a Homework Center – a place that helps him when Mom and Dad can't. And when he works especially hard, he can win wonderful prizes – like tickets to a Clemson home game that he might otherwise never get to see.

Hundreds of Homework Centers across the nation focus on keeping struggling students from becoming dropouts. In actuality, they're doing a lot more than that. Many hardworking students are bringing their grades up from F's to A's, and in one South Carolina elementary school expulsions declined from 38 to 4 after the centers opened.

Duke Power is proud to help support such an important and effective program. We invite you to help too. Simply donate football or basketball season tickets you're unable to use or purchase extra tickets to contribute to the Homework Centers for use as prizes. Send them at least two weeks before game day to: John Geer, Duke Power Company, P.O. Box 1745, Clemson, SC 29633.

If you do, you'll be helping students like Eric tackle the books today so that tomorrow they can tackle the world.

Assistant Coaches

Les Herrin

Les Herrin
Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

The Clemson football program has seen a lot of success during Les Herrin's tenure as an assistant coach. In 1981, Herrin arrived at Clemson as a linebacker coach, and the Tigers won the National Championship that season. In his first tour of duty with the Tigers (1981-84) Clemson had a 37-6-2 record during that span.

After a brief stint away from Clemson at East Carolina (1985-87) and North Carolina (1988), Herrin returned to the Tiger program in 1989 as defensive line coach. In 1989 Clemson ranked fifth in the nation in scoring, rushing, and total defense. The team followed that perfromance with a number-one ranking in total defense in 1990.

Herrin, in his first year as Assistant Head Coach, has coached several players who have had successful NFL careers. Herrin coached 1981 ACC MVP Jeff Davis, who went on to be captain of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and 1989 All-Pro Johnny Rembert (New England Patriots), who was a linebacker under Herrin's watchful eye in 1981 and 1982. Chester McGlockton, now one of the top young defensive linemen with the Los Angeles Raiders, and 1993 All-ACC selection Brentson Buckner of the Pittsburgh Steelers also benefitted from Herrin's teachings.

Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

Now in his second stint at Clemson, Miles Aldridge will be the Tigers' defensive coordinator and work with the defensive backs in 1994. He first came to Clemson in 1985 as an inside linebacker coach. From 1986 thru 1989 the Tigers were ranked in the top 20 in all defensive categories. This included the 1989 season when Clemson ranked fifth nationally in rushing, scoring and total defense.

Clemson won three consecutive ACC titles during Aldridge's first stay at Clemson, 1986-87-88 and was ranked in the final AP top 25 in 1986-87-88-89. Clemson has been to a bowl game every year Aldridge has been affiliated with the program. And Clemson has been successful in those bowl appearances, as the Peach Bowl win over Kentucky gave Aldridge a 5-1 ledger in bowl games as a Clemson coach.

Aldridge has coached several players who have gone on to have successful pro careers. Three linebackers have gone on to the NFL, Andre Townsend (Mississippi), Freddie Joe Nunn (Mississippi), and Ed McDaniel (Clemson). Another former Clemson LB, Doug Brewster, went to the CFL, where he was a member of the Grey Cup Championship team, the Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Clyde Christensen

Clyde Christensen
Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

An All-American quarterback in junior college, Clyde Christensen comes to Clemson after two years at Maryland. He knows the ACC well as he also played for the University of North Carolina in 1977 and 1978.

At Maryland he coached quarterbacks John Kaleo and Scott Milanovich. Kaleo ranked second in the nation in total offense as a senior, while Milanovich ranked fourth nationally in that category.

Christensen's offense at Maryland was explosive, as the Terps ranked fourth in the country in 1992 with an average of 466 yards per game, and 16th last year when they averaged 440 yards per game. The Terps also ranked second in the country in passing offense in 1992 and third in passing offense in 1993.

While Christensen is in his first year as a coach at Clemson, he has known Clemson head coach Tommy West for over 15 years. The two were graduate assistant coaches together at Mississippi in 1979. He is only 36-years-old, but already has college experience at Mississippi, East Tennessee State, Temple, East Carolina, Holy Cross, South Carolina and Maryland.

Christensen was a part of two successful teams at North Carolina, as the Tar Heels played in the 1977 Liberty Bowl and the 1978 Peach Bowl during his career. He was also a junior college All-American at Fresno City Junior College in California. He is a native of Corvina, CA.

Rick Stockstill

Rick Stockstill
Co-Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers

Rick Stockstill has been around successful programs and record setting offenses his entire coaching career. In his first year as quarterback coach at Clemson (1989), the Tigers set a school record for completion percentage (60%). The Tigers led the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense for the 1991 season, and Clemson gained the second most yards in school history in the process.

Stockstill also tutored productive offenses at Central Florida and Bethune-Cookman in his early years as a football coach. As a player, he was the starting quarterback for Florida State. He guided the Seminoles to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances, a pair of top 10 rankings, and was the team captain in 1981.

The Rick Stockstill File

At Clemson: In his first season as co-offensive coordinator and is in his sixth season with the Tigers.
Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Bethune-Cookman College (1983-84); assistant head coach and wide receiver coach at the University of Central Florida (1985-88); quarterback coach at Clemson (1989-1993); passing game coordinator at Clemson (1992-93); co-offensive coordinator and wide receiver coach (Dec. 1993-present).
Education: Fernandina Beach High School in Fernandina Beach, FL (1977); B.S. degree in Physical Education from Florida State (1982).
College Playing Experience: Earned three letters in football from Florida State.
Personal Data: Born December 23, 1959...he and his wife Sara were married on July 7, 1990, and had their first child, Brent Forrest, in August, 1994.

It is no surprise that Stockstill has moved up the coaching ladder so swiftly because he is the product of an athletic family. His father was a high school coach for many years at Fernandina Beach High School in Fernandina Beach, FL. His brother, Jeff, was a starting wide receiver for the Tigers in 1982, a reserve on the National Championship team of 1981, and was a contributor to the Clemson program for four years.

Stockstill is in his sixth year with the Clemson program and the Tigers have been to a bowl game in four of the five previous seasons. He joins Les Herrin and Whitey Jordan as the only full-time assistant coaches in Clemson history to serve under three different head coaches.

Richard Bisaccia

Richard Bisaccia
Running Backs/Special Teams/ Recruiting Coordinator

This Yonkers, NY native was a four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College. He was a free agent with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL after his college career.

While the 1983 Spring season saw the end of his football career, the 1983 fall was the beginning of his coaching career. He was named the offensive coordinator at Wayne State in Nebraska his first year out of college and he has been in college coaching ever since.

Unlike many Division I full-time assistant coaches, Bisaccia has not made a lot of moves. He spent five seasons at Wayne State, then six seasons at South Carolina. He has experience coaching on defense and offense, but will concentrate on the running backs position at Clemson.

The Richard Bisaccia File

At Clemson: In his first season as the Tigers' running backs coach and special teams coach.
Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator at Wayne State (NE) (1983-87); graduate assistant for wide receivers at South Carolina (1988); volunteer assistant for defensive ends at South Carolina (1989-90); tight ends coach at South Carolina (1991); running backs and special teams coach at South Carolina (1992-93); running backs and special teams coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).
Education: New Fairfield High School in New Fairfield, CT; Earned a degree in health and physical education from Yankton College (1983).
College Playing Experience: Four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College (1980-83). Played one year with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL.
Personal Data: Born June 3, 1960...he and his wife Jeanne have four children: daughters, Michele (10), Elizabeth (5), and Madeline (1) and son Richard Oakley (August 1994).

The 34-year-old Bisaccia is a coach who enjoys challenges. That is fortunate for Clemson because he must work with a very young group of running backs in his first year. There are no junior or senior backs on the Clemson roster.

Bisaccia probably wears more hats than any other Clemson coach. In addition to his time with the running backs, he is also the special teams coach and the recruiting coordinator.

In addition to Bisaccia's changes on the gridiron the last year, he has had a family addition. Last August, his wife Jeanne gave birth to their first son and fourth child, Richard Oakley.

James Earle

James Earle
Tight Ends

James Earle holds the distinction of being the only former Clemson player on the 1994 Clemson Coach staff. There are many former Clemson players in coaching this year, but he is the only former Tiger serving his alma mater in a full-time capacity.

If Earle can make as many contributions as a coach as he did as a player, Tommy West will be very proud of his former player. Earle was a starting outside linebacker for the Tigers in 1986 and 1987 and West was his position coach.

The James Earle File

At Clemson: In his first full season as tight ends coach.
Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Football, track, and wrestling coach at Greer High School (1989); football, basketball, and track coach at Easley High School (1992); College - Graduate assistant at Clemson (1990-91); linebacker coach at UT-Chattanooga (1993); tight ends coach at Clemson (1993-Present).
Education: Earned a Secondary Education degree from Clemson (1989).
College Playing Experience: Played strong safety and outside linebacker for Clemson (1984-87).
Personal Data: Born March 26, 1966 in Easley, SC.

As a player, Earle was named the nation's #6 outside linebacker by the Sporting News in the preseason of 1987. He led the Tigers in tackles that year with 79, outdistancing Michael Dean Perry for that honor. Clemson was fifth in the nation in total defense that year. Earle finished his career with 213 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and 16 pass deflections. He played in 47 straight games and had 27 starts. The versatile athlete lettered as a strong safety in 1984 and 1985 and played in three bowl games. Clemson won the ACC Championship and won a bowl game his junior and senior seasons.

Earle began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 1990 and 1991, then was hired by West at UT-Chattanooga in 1993. Earle already has experience with a college program on both sides of the ball. He is tutoring the tight ends at Clemson and was a linebacker coach at UTC.

Reggie Herring

Reggie Herring
Inside Linebackers

Reggie Herring is another example of an outstanding player who has gone on to become an outstanding coach. A teammate of Rick Stockstill at Florida State, Herring left his own mark with the Seminole program as a player.

Herring was captain of the 1981 FSU Orange Bowl team and earned AP All-America honors that year. The Seminoles played in the Orange Bowl and ranked in the top 10 in the nation his junior and senior seasons, and he was recently inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame. He was a three-year starter at Florida State and the Seminoles played in three bowls during his four year career. Florida State also had three double-figure victory seasons during his career.

Like many of Clemson's assistant coaches in 1994, Herring has a diverse resume. Herring has not made plans over the Christmas holidays for quite some time. He has been a part of college football as a player and coach since 1977. In those 17 seasons he has been to 13 bowl games, 10 as a coach and three as a player. He has coached in bowl games for Oklahoma State, Auburn, and Clemson and of course played in three bowls at Florida State.

The Reggie Herring File

At Clemson: In his first season as inside linebackers coach.

College Playing Experience: Three-year starter at linebacker for Florida State.
Personal Data: Born on July 3, 1959...married the former Lisa Ward, and they have two children, Caroline and Adam.

Ellis Johnson

Ellis Johnson
Outside Linebackers

Ellis Johnson is another successful Tiger assistant who has ties to the area. Johnson attended The Citadel, but he grew up a Clemson fan. He was raised just outside of Columbia, but he had many relatives who were Clemson alumni. He has coached in the state at The Citadel as a graduate assistant, at Gaffney High as an assistant coach and at Spartanburg High as an assistant coach and head coach. He went back to the Citadel in 1982.

His most remarkable experience in coaching so far took place in Alabama. In 1992 Johnson served as an assistant coach at Alabama. The Crimson Tide experienced a perfect season and defeated Miami (FL) in the Sugar Bowl to win the National Championship. He is one of two Tiger assistant coaches on this year's staff with a National Championship ring. Les Herrin, a member of Clemson's 1981 staff, is the other.

Johnson was a part of four outstanding defenses as Alabama. During his tenure (1990-93), Alabama ranked in the top five in the nation in total defense and pass defense three times. The 1992 Alabama defense led the nation in total defense and rushing defense, and ranked second nationally in passing defense and scoring defense.

John Latina

John Latina
Offensive Line

John Latina has been an offensive coach for a Division I program every year since 1979. He might have his greatest challenge this season, however, as he has just three of the top 10 offensive linemen from last year's 9-3 squad returning.

But, if any coach can handle a situation devoid of experience it is John Latina. The Virginia Tech graduate who once played against Clemson as an offensive guard (1978) has worked at Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Temple and Kansas State. He has already coached in a bowl game with four different schools, Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Kansas State and Clemson.

During his career he has worked with Dan Marino, who led the Panthers to a 9-3 ledger and the Cotton Bowl in 1982. Paul Palmer, one of the top rushers in NCAA history with Temple, was also a member of Latina's offense in the 1980s.

Over the last five years Kansas State's program in general and offense in particular, has shown as much improvement as any in the country. In Latina's second season at Kansas State as offensive line coach and running game coordinator, the Wildcats set a school record for total offense with 4,231. Kansas State advanced to a bowl game in 1992, just the second bowl appearance in school history.

Saying WESTPOINT without STEVENS

was like saying

CLEMSON without TIGERS.

Here's how we tackled the situation:

From our history we have taken two great names and a symbol – each with a high recognition factor, rich in history and tradition – and formed a new Company name to propel us into the future. All three of these textile leaders make up today's WESTPOINT STEVENS. Now – for the first time – each of the three great companies that have gone into our Company as we know it today are represented in one name and trademark.

THE STYLIZED WINGED PEPPERELL GRIFFIN was established in 1851 by Pepperell Manufacturing Company, founded in 1850 in Biddeford, Maine. With the body of a lion and the head and wings of an eagle, the Griffin symbolizes the union of strength and agility. The Griffin will continue to be our Company trademark.

STEVENS comes from J. P. Stevens & Co. Inc., founded in 1813 in North Andover, Massachusetts.

WestPoint Stevens is now the name behind great names like MARTEX®, UTICA®, LADY PEPPERELL®, STEVENS®, VELLUX® and ALAMAC® and licensed designer labels including RALPH LAUREN®, COLLIER CAMPBELL®, LOUIS NICHOLE®, GLORIA VANDERBILT®, SANDERSON®, EILEEN WEST®, JOE BOXER®, and LIBERTY OF LONDON®.

Dear Diary,

Tuesday: I couldn't believe the great I saw on campus. Wednesday: He's in my class! His name is Jack. What a doll! I've gotta get to Uptons. Thursday: Jack smiled at me! I wore that and I got at Uptons. Friday: He asked me if I wanted to get tomorrow night!!! Aahh! What'll I wear!?! Back to Uptons!

Clemson Coaches

Clemson Sports Notes, 1993-94

*Clemson had nine teams rank among the final top 25 in either the final poll, or NCAA meet/ tournament events. The highest ranked team was the baseball team, which finished fourth in the final Baseball America poll. The Clemson soccer team advanced to the NCAAs and was fifth in the final poll, the wrestling team was seventh, the golf team was ninth, the men's track team was 11th, the Lady Tiger tennis team was 18th in the final poll, the women's basketball team was 22nd (USA Today poll), the football team 22nd (USA Today poll), and the men's indoor track team was 24th.

*The final Sears All-Sports poll ranked the Clemson all-round sports program 16th in the nation. Clemson's fine spring of top 11 finishes in baseball, track and golf had a lot to do with that fine ranking.

*Clemson defeated the number-one team in two different sports in 1993-94. The Tiger soccer team defeated number-one Virginia in Charlottesville on a goal at the buzzer by All-American Jimmy Glenn. The Clemson baseball team defeated Georgia Tech (ranked number-one by Baseball America) twice in Atlanta in May. It was just the second time in Clemson history that the Tigers had beaten the number-one team in two different sports in the same year.

*Nine different sports that compete in dual meet or match competition had at least one win over a top 25 opponent during the 1993-94 academic year.

*It was a showcase year for Clemson's facilities. For the first time in history, Clemson played host to NCAA Championship events in three different sports. Clemson played host to the volleyball and soccer tournaments in the Fall, the women's basketball tournament in the Winter and the baseball tournament in the Spring.

*Clemson had a solid year in football, basketball and baseball, the school's oldest and most traditional sports. Clemson went to postseason play in all three sports and was one of just two schools in the nation to win at least nine football games, 18 basketball games and 36 baseball games. Florida was the only other school in the nation to do it. It was just the eighth time in Clemson history and the first time in five years that Clemson has been to postseason play in all three of its oldest sports in the same academic year.

*All but two of Clemson's teams had what would be termed a winning season and five of the teams that participate in head-to-head competition won at least 70 percent of their games.

*Clemson football player Warren Forney was the recipient of the Sullivan Award, one of the top honors bestowed upon a Clemson student. It is presented for service to others.

*Jaro Zawislan won the ACC's Jim Weaver Award as one of the top all-around student-athletes in the ACC.

ACC Football

*Over the last 13 years the ACC has captured more college football national championships than any other conference. Clemson won the title in 1981, Georgia Tech in 1990 and Florida State in 1993. The Big Eight is second with two national championships over the last 13 years, while the Pac-10, the Western Athletic and Southeastern have one apiece. Maryland also won the national championship in 1953, the first year of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

*Over the last five years the ACC is the only conference in the nation to have each of its schools play in a bowl game.

*The nine ACC schools that will take to the field this fall have produced 296 first or second-team gridiron All-Americans and 47 first-team Academic All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,253 players selected in the annual NFL draft, including 78 first-round selections.

*In 1993 the ACC boasted its first Heisman Trophy winner, Charlie Ward. He was one of eight different ACC players to be selected first or second-team All-American by at least one service. The list included Clemson guard Stacy Seegars.

*Clemson and Florida State are two of just four teams nationally who have won at least 75 percent of their games in seven of the last eight years. Clemson and Florida State are also the only two teams in the nation to win six bowl games since 1986.

*For the third consecutive year the ACC drew more than 2.3 million fans. Over 54 home dates, ACC schools attracted 2,416,728 fans. ACC teams played to 87 percent of their stadium capacities. Clemson ranked 15th in the nation in average attendance, its 12th straight year in the top 15 in the nation in attendance.

The ACC has sent at least four teams to bowl games each of the last five years.

*If success in postseason play is a barometer of excellence, the ACC is among the best leagues in the nation. ACC teams have a combined 70-65-5 record in bowl games over the years, a .537 winning percentage. That is second only to the Pac-10's .551 success rate. Three ACC teams are among the top eight in NCAA history in terms of bowl winning percentage. Georgia Tech is second with a 68 percent mark, Florida State is fourth with a .636 mark and Clemson is eighth at .632.

*Four ACC teams are guaranteed appearing in postseason bowls this year. Five ACC teams received bowl bids in 1993. Two ACC teams are committed to the 1994 Football Bowl Coalition. The league champion is guaranteed a spot in one of four Tier One Bowls, the Orange, Sugar, Cotton and Fiesta, and a second team will be available for the Tier Two Bowls, the Gator and the John Hancock. For the third year of a three-year contract, the ACC is committed to sending a third team to the Peach Bowl. The ACC is in the second year of a two-year contract to have a fourth league team compete against a Big Ten team,(also a number-four team) in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

*The ACC also stands at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics in terms of academic achievements of its student-athletes. That accomplishment is certainly shown in the list of schools who have won the CFA Academic Achievement Award, which is presented to the CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate of its football team. Eight times over the past 14 years an ACC member school has claimed the award. In 1994, the ACC had six of the 20 CFA members who reported a graduation rate of 70 percent or better.

*The ACC excelled in more than just football in 1993-94. The conference captured five national titles and participated in the national title game in four other sports. The ACC has won 18 national team championships over the last four years. In 1993-94 the ACC claimed the national champion in football, women's basketball, women's soccer and field hockey. The ACC held the runnerup spot in men's basketball, baseball, men's lacrosse and women's lacrosse.

*The ACC placed at least one team in the top 10 nationally in 14 of the 23 sports sponsored by the league. In 1993-94 a league record 82 teams competed in NCAA championships, five teams were in football bowl games and 29 teams were ranked in the final top 10 of their respective sports.

*At one time or another, an all-time high 12 ACC teams in eight different sports, representing seven of the nine institutions, held a number-one ranking in 1993-94.

*The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the eighth straight year as 1,151 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

*ACC teams made an all-time record 29 national television appearances last fall and an ACC team participated in the highest rated game in 10 years.

Clemson and Florida State are the only schools in the country with six bowl wins since 1986. The ACC is the only conference in the nation that has seen all of its members participate in a bowl over the last five years.

Memorial Stadium

Clemson has the ninth largest on campus stadium in College Football.

In 1991, two very special anniversaries in the Clemson football tradition were observed. Not only did the 1991 season mark the 10th anniversary of Clemson's National Championship season, but it also marked the 50th birthday of the place where the Tigers won six games that season: Memorial Stadium.

In the first 52 years of Memorial Stadium, Clemson has a record of 180-65-7, including a 22-3-1 ledger over the last four seasons. Clemson had a 16-game unbeaten streak at home between 1990-92 and has a career winning ratio of 72.8 percent.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers who call it home, but the stadium was constructed against the advice of at least one Clemson coach. Just before head coach Jess Neely left for Rice University after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message. "Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the Y.M.C.A. That's all you'll ever need."

Instead of following Coach Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place would take some clearing-there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work: clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. Finally, on September 19, 1942, Clemson Memorial Stadium opened with the Tiger Football team thrashing Presbyterian College, 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for Opening Day would soon grow; and grow and grow. This year Clemson celebrates its 53rd year in this outstanding facility.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 40's, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including many football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor, and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The building of the stadium did not proceed without a few problems. One day during the clearing of the land, one young football player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then commenced to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, however, the boy was swollen twice his size and had to be put in the hospital.

There are many other stories about the stadium including one stating that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner of the stadium as the concrete poured.

Howard says that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems. "About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he says. "After three weeks, on July 15, we had only gotten halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far, and I would give them three more week's pay for however long it took. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through. After that it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard says that on the first day of the first game in the stadium,"the gates were hung at 1:00 and we played at 2:00." But that would be all of the construction for a while. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added and, in 1960, a total of 5,658 West end zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large end zone,"Green Grass" section, this expansion increased capacity to about 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled-the first one in 1978 and the second in 1983. This increased capacity to over 80,000 which makes it one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the country.

The effect spiraling inflation has had in this century can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of the stadium was built at a cost of $125,000 or at $6.25 a seat. The newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 a seat.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged this by the late Presbyterian coach, Lonnie McMillan. After bringing his P.C. teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, McMillan said the place was like Death Valley. A few years later the name stuck.

Clemson has the most unique and famous stadium entrance in sports.

On November 16, 1974 the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to the University.

Athletic Director Bobby Robinson says that Memorial Stadium has many features which makes it a top facility. "One thing that makes it so good is the number of sideline seats," he says. "We don't think there is a bad seat in the house.

"We also have outstanding dressing rooms, press facilities, and ample parking nearby. Another unique feature of the stadium is the number of private boxes."

If Memorial Stadium is expanded again and the capacity is pushed closer to 100,000,there will be room for construction over the west stands, enclosing that end like a horseshoe.

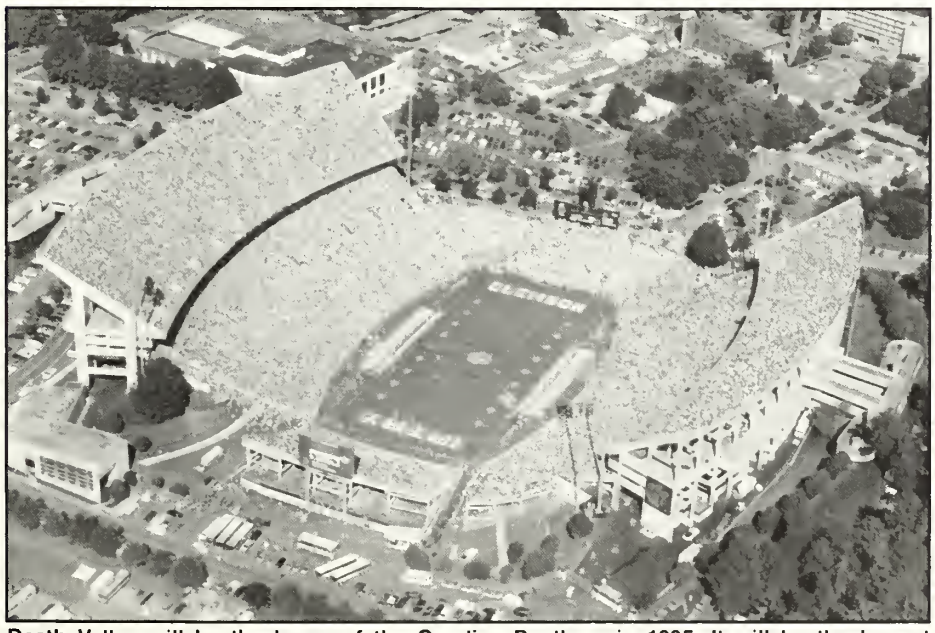
What the Opponents Say:

"The biggest thing is dealing with the noise once the game starts. Clemson fans are among the most enthusiastic in all of football."
Bobby Ross, Head Coach
San Diego Chargers, 1991

"When they (Clemson) ran down the hill, I got so excited I could hardly breathe."
Marco Coleman
Georgia Tech, 1991

"Games at Clemson are unreal. You can stand next to each other and talk and can't hear what the other guy is saying. The offense and defense of the opposing team better get used to using hand signals to set formations and get plays off."
Bobby Houston
N.C. State linebacker, 1989

"I came in here knowing it would be loud and that Clemson would hit me hard, but to me the noise was the biggest factor. I know I didn't concentrate as well because of it."
Herschel Walker
Georgia tailback, 1981



Death Valley will be the home of the Carolina Panthers in 1995. It will be the largest stadium in the NFL that year.

Rick Stockstill

By Jessica Reo

Clemson set a pass completion record (60 percent) in Rick Stockstill's first year as quarterback coach (1989).

One of the mainstays on the Clemson football staff, Rick Stockstill has been a common denominator on the staffs of each of the last three Clemson head coaches. He began at Clemson as the quarterback coach in 1989 under Danny Ford, moved to the passing game coordinator in 1992 under Ken Hatfield, and in December of 1993, was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach by Tommy West. He is one of only three assistant coaches in Tiger history to serve under three different head coaches.

"I wanted to stay here both times. Coach (Ken) Hatfield, I thank him for giving me the opportunity to stay. He kept me on and then four years later the same thing happened," stated Stockstill. "I knew Tommy (West) from working with him my first year here and we stayed friends the four years in between. He offered me the job once he got it and there was no hesitation. This was a guy I wanted to work for."

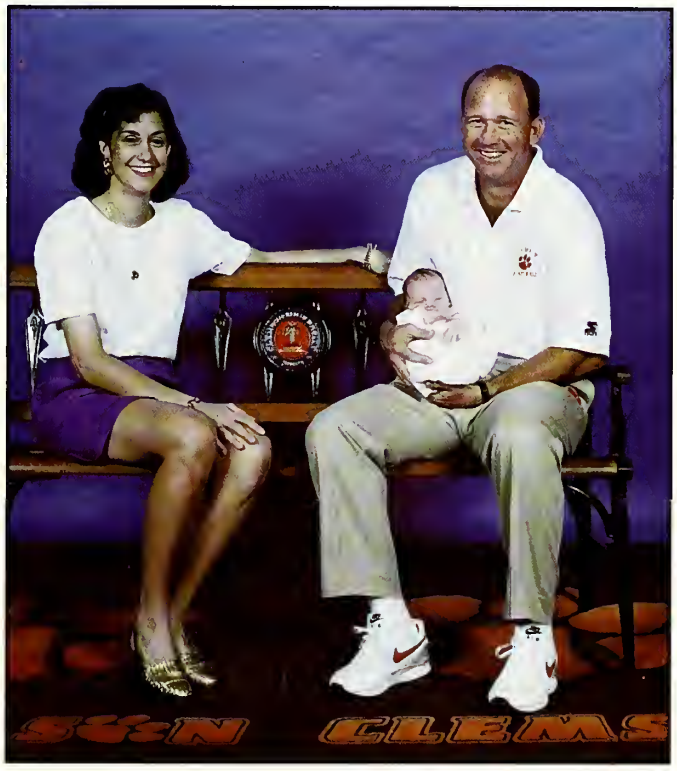
That feeling, the same one projected from all of the coaches, is present every day in the Clemson football offices. Coach Stockstill and the rest of the staff seem to have an ease about them that comes from enjoying those with whom they work, knowing that the coaching philosophies are relatively the same or at least go hand-in-hand. There is the excitement of working towards a new goal.

"Coaching. You do everything you can to be the best coach you can be, plus, you do everything to make the players you coach be the best they can be," says Stockstill. "I always wanted to coach. I grew up in a coaching family. My dad was a high school and college coach and I knew at a real young age that I wanted to coach. I probably made that decision in seventh or eighth grade. When I went to college I wanted to be a high school coach, and then after a couple of years I decided that college coaching was where I wanted to be." And be there he has, as he has been a college coach for 11 years.

Stockstill, a 1982 graduate of Florida State University and one of the premier college quarterbacks at the time, immediately began his coaching career at Bethune-Cookman College in 1983 as the offensive coordinator and quarterback coach. He moved on to be the assistant head coach and wide receiver coach at the University of Central Florida in 1985, then made his move to Clemson in 1989.

"When you come to Clemson and they've won a national championship and they've won a bunch of conference championships, you have a certain bit of doubt or wonder that, hey, can you coach on this level. I had that doubt coming here because I had never coached at that level, but I found out that it doesn't matter where you coach, it's just about the same. If you're a coach, you can coach, no matter where you are. I've never thought of doing anything else but coaching.

"I like the challenges, the camaraderie with the other coaches, the competition part of it. I like everything involved in being a coach. Coaching keeps us young. On this level you will always be around 17-21 year old kids and they've got young thoughts and young ideas. They help keep us young; we might get older each year, but our minds stay young because that is who we interact with."



Rick and his wife Sara are the proud parents of one-month old Brent Forrest Stockstill.

And that's what makes the coaching staff here successful: their desire to work together to build a successful program, the youthful outlook, the excitement for a new season and a new system, and their extreme pride in their own coaching abilities. "I knew everybody on this staff except John Latina. I met everybody, knew everybody in the years before. . . We had a personal relationship built before we started working together. It's a great staff and I know that's being said an awful lot, but it's a real good staff football knowledge-wise; it's a good staff personality-wise. Everybody gets along with each other. It's been a very enjoyable eight months."

The Kentucky-native grew up in a small town, not unlike the town of Clemson. He played baseball, football, and basketball on local YMCA teams and in school. "I loved it," said Stockstill. "I'm a small town person, and I really enjoyed my years growing up in Kentucky."

It was only during his junior year in high school that his family moved to Fernandina Beach, FL. Altogether, he earned 14 letters total, four in football, four in basketball, and six in baseball in high school. Currently ninth in the FSU career record books for touchdown passes, Stockstill earned three letters at Florida State, led the team to three bowl games, two of which were the Orange Bowl, and was the team captain in 1981.

Plans for the future? "Ultimately, I think all of us would like to be a head coach some day, but I don't have a timetable set or anything like that. If it happens, it's great. I f it doesn't happen it's not something that I'm going to go to my grave feeling bad that I didn't accomplish. I would like to be a head coach, but I'm happy where I am, I love Clemson, I love the people I work with."

Right now, though, there are two things on Stockstill's mind, football and his first child. Stockstill and his wife, Sara, had their first child in August. With the new football season, getting adjusted to the new coaching staff and the new student-athletes, and a new baby, some long hours are ahead for the Stockstills. "When you get married that's a commitment, when you marry a football coach, it's probably the ultimate commitment. Our schedules are very demanding, our timetables are set year-in and year-out. Sara understands all of that. Any woman who marries a football coach has to understand that going in, because if she doesn't it's going to be a tough time for them."

Rick Stockstill is one of the mainstays of Clemson's young staff, but he will long remember 1994 as a year of change. In fact, between his football family (coaching wide receivers for the first time and working for a new boss), and his everyday family (Brent Forrest and Sara), he is probably dealing with more change than anyone on the Clemson staff.

Dodge Intrepid ES

It's called Dodge Intrepid. And it's like no other car you've ever driven. Its remarkable cab-forward design gives more room to people and less to machinery. Dodge Intrepid. This changes everything.

...And The Truck That Changed All The Rules.

Dodge Ram Pickup

The Dodge Ram Pickup. It's the first full-size pickup with available anti-lock brakes at all four wheels. And every pickup we sell comes with a standard driver's-side airbag.* While, under the hood, there's a choice of powerful Magnum engines including an awesome 300 horsepower V-10. Ram pickup also changes the rules about the way a truck ought to look. Dodge Ram. The rules have changed.

Then Say Hi To Neon.

Dodge Neon

Don't let its small size fool you. Our Neon is full of big ideas. Like cab-forward design. So there's more room inside than you might think. And more power, too. A generous 132 horses to be exact. Stephon Wynn

By Chris Metzler

"I was brought up to help people, to do what you can for people." said Clemson tight end Stephon Wynn. "It could be a stranger on the street or a friend, it does not matter. If you can do something for someone, you will benefit from it whether it is now or later."

June 6, 1992 began as another day in which he was doing something for a friend. However the day ended as a day when he would have to do something for himself, fight to live.

"One of my good friends had just graduated from high school." said Wynn. "We have a tradition in my neighborhood, that if someone graduates from high school their older friends take them out. If you have a younger buddy you try to do something for him because it is something special to graduate from high school in my neighborhood."

His friend decided that he wanted to go to a local club. "I had just made a date with a real nice girl for that Friday, but I cancelled because my buddy wanted to go to the club. I wanted to take him out and show him a good time, a reward for graduating."

While they were at the club, Wynn's friend ran into an old girlfriend who was with another guy. The two men began arguing and they went outside. "People told me not to go out because I was not involved. But since the guy came with me I felt it was my responsibility to take care of him."

After arguing for a while, the two began shoving each other before an all-out fight broke out. After the fight came to an end Wynn tried to get his friend to his car. "By the time I got him to the car the brother of the guy my friend was fighting with showed up and said he had a gun. He threatened to use it. I knew him so I went over and talked with him. He said he would shoot me!" Wynn told him I had nothing to do with the fight and that he wanted to get his friend out of there. Wynn was shoved. Then bang!

"I really did not know that I was shot until someone told me. I looked down and saw a lot of blood. I got frightened because you know in Cowboy movies people die when they get shot and bleed like I was bleeding. I did not pass out, I just started walking around my car when I remembered my mom told me when things go wrong start praying and things will work out.

"I got on my knees and was praying when the guy came back and put the gun to my head. I didn't even know if he pulled the trigger, I just pushed the gun away and he ran off. I got up and threw my keys to a friend and he took me to the hospital."

Doctors operated but decided not to take the bullet out because of its position in Wynn's back. He spent nine days in the hospital before returning home. During his stay in the hospital his mother, Nora, stayed with him to give support. "My mom has meant everything to me. She is all that I have had throughout all my highs and lows. I thank the Lord for my mom because she did a great job raising six kids, pretty much by herself. She has always given me the support I needed to keep going. I hope one day to make her very happy because she has done so much for me."

Wynn spent the 1992 season recovering from the injury lifting weights and running. "Knowing it is in me just motivates me. I know that I have to work a little harder in the weight room and do more running to get stronger. My abdomen muscles will never be the same so I have had to work very hard to get them as strong as possible."

Stephon Wynn is one of only a handful of seniors on Clemson's offense in 1994.

Clemson Strength coach Gary Wade noticed Wynn's new work habits. "There have been two different Stephon Wynns at Clemson. The first one was a naturally strong and gifted athlete who was not very dedicated in the weight room. After his injury he has become an extremely dedicated, hard working individual. He even began to work with the younger guys telling them that they need to put in the time to better themselves. He knows what working hard can do because he has really benefited from working out."

Because of his hard work in the weight room he was able to return in the spring of 1993 to the football field and had a strong performance. He caught five passes for 62 yards including two for 36 in the annual Orange and White game. He entered the 1993 season as the first string tight end. Then he suffered another setback.

"After I worked so hard to come back strong, I hurt my knee in August (1993) practice." said Wynn "I started to ask my mom if football was meant for me anymore and why all of this had happened to me. But she kept giving me support and got me through it."

He again worked hard in the weight room and ran long distances to recover from the knee injury as well as to strengthen his abdominal muscles. His hard work was recognized by his teammates as he earned co-Lifter-of-the-Year honors for 1993.

By the third game of the 1993 season he was again playing for the Tigers. By the fourth game he regained the starting tight end position, a slot he held the rest of the season. During that stretch he caught four passes, including a 22-yard reception in Clemson's win over Maryland. He also recorded 21 knock-down blocks, and was a key to Clemson's improved ground attack in late season wins over Maryland, Virginia, South Carolina, and Kentucky.

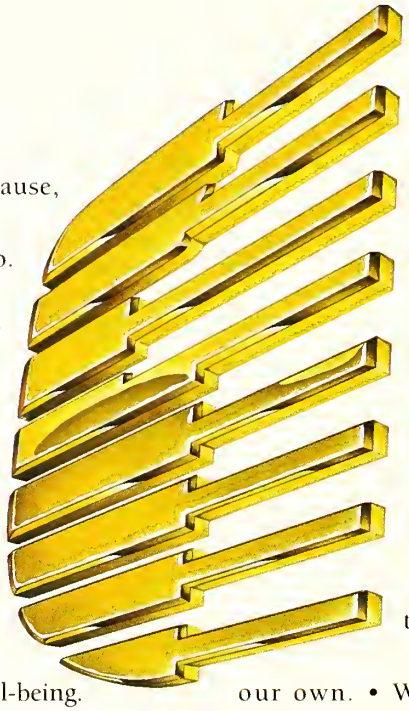
"Most of the time, (Stephon) is going to catch it." said Clemson quarterback Patrick Sapp. "And when he does, he turns it up and takes three or four people with him. He's not going to go down easy."

In 1994 he will split time with Lamont Hall and Ed Glenn. "As the only experienced senior on offense it makes me feel like at times I am going to have to stand up and let the younger guys know what is going to happen and what it will take for us to win. I also plan to show by example and feel a lot of guys will follow in my footsteps."

"I think Stephon wants to be a leader and he wants to have responsibilities now," said Clemson Head Coach Tommy West. "He has done a good job so far with the responsibilities. The advantage that he has over a lot of people is his experience. He has been around college football and he has experienced coming back from an injury. There is nothing that replaces experience and that is what he gives us."

Hopefully this will be a big year for Wynn on the football field, but more importantly an injury-free year. "I thank the Lord for giving me the strength to have a second chance to play football. I now have a chance to reach two goals. First to contribute to this year's football team. Second, earn my degree and make my mom proud. I went through a very hard time, but I am a lot stronger and smarter now because of it."

What we mean by putting South Carolina first.



We founded Carolina First because, well, because we felt we had to. • South Carolina's community banks were being bought up and run to serve absentee owners. • Being South Carolinians, we didn't care to do without a strong bank dedicated to our state's well-being. Being bankers, we created this bank. • If we understand South Carolina's needs, it's because they're the needs of our own friends and neighbors. We invest in South Carolina businesses because it's good business for all concerned. After all, when our home communities grow and prosper, we grow and prosper. And because we treat our customers as the individuals they are, their good feelings spark our own. • We'd treat any customer from anywhere this way. But by design – and in conscious contrast to the multi-state megabanks – our customers are South Carolinians. So are we. Is it any wonder we put South Carolina first?

T-BIRD II AND T-33 MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME

MARIETTA, Ga. (October 20, 1993) — In a different form of "higher education" than is represented by Clemson University in the background, Lockheed's past and future military training aircraft were recently flown in formation for the first time last October.

The future is represented by the T-Bird II (foreground), which is the Lockheed team's entry in the on-going Joint Primary Aircraft Training System (JPATS) competition for the U.S. Air Force and Navy. The past is exemplified by the vintage T-33A (center), the type that was the world's first jet trainer. (Photo by John Rossino)

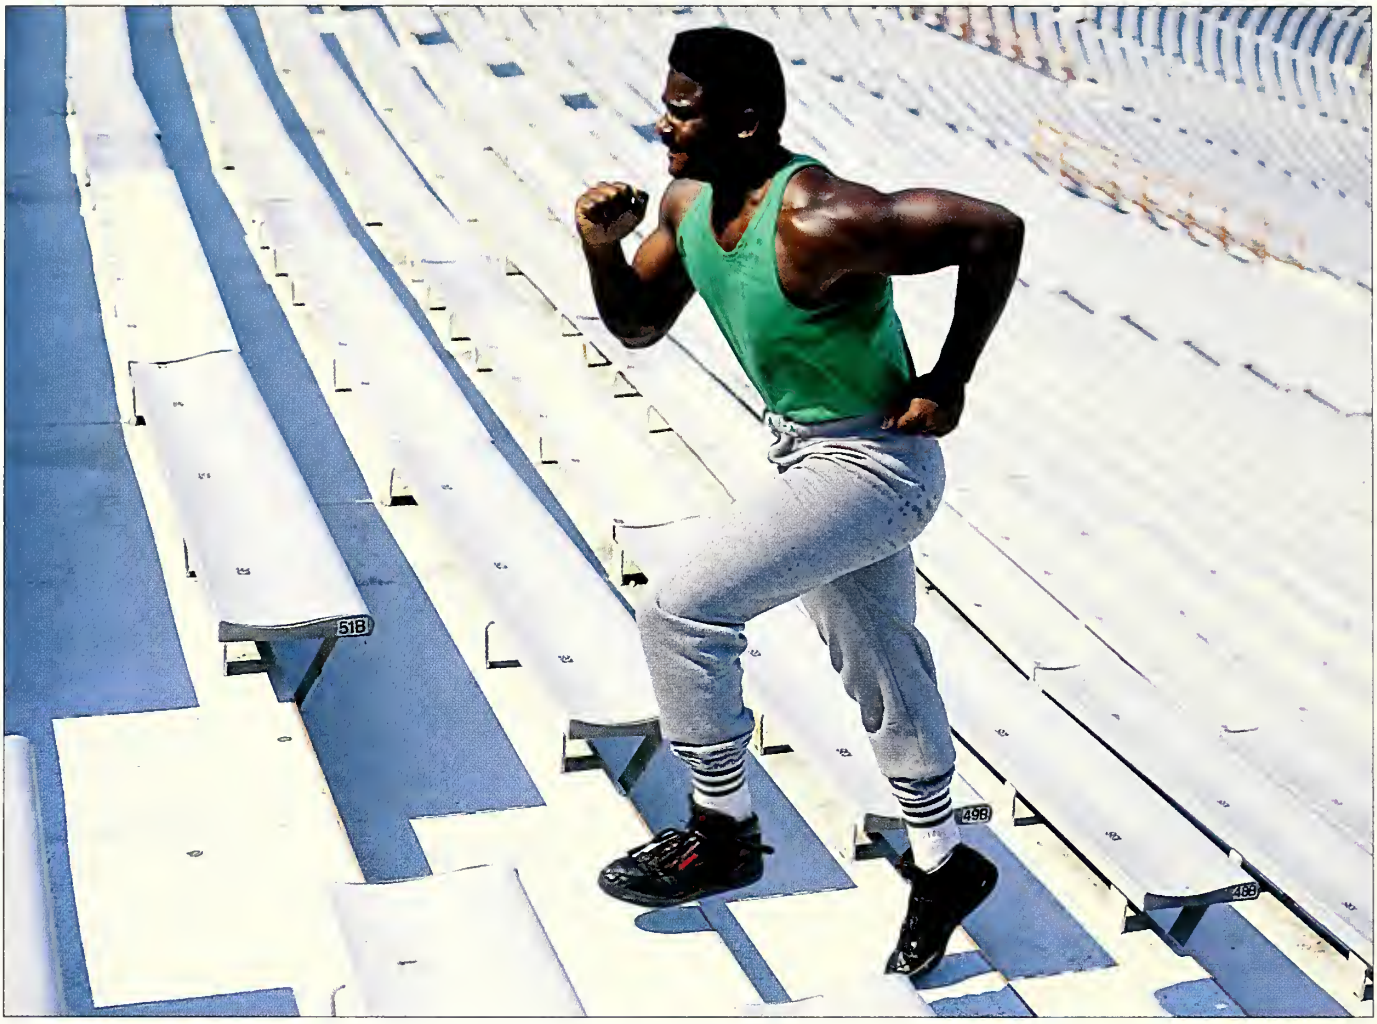
IT'S WHAT YOU DO WHEN THE COACH ISN'T WATCHING THAT MATTERS.



Start early. Stay late. Take responsibility. Do what needs to be done without being told to do it. These are qualities that matter. Especially when it comes to service. And especially at First Union, where service throughout the Southeast doesn't stop at the door or close at five. It's looking after you even when you're not looking.

When it comes to service, everything matters.®

'94 Rules Changes

By John R. Adams
Secretary-Rules Editor
NCAA Football Rules Committee

The NCAA has issued stern penalties for fighting

At its annual meeting in January 1994, the NCAA Football Rules Committee approved several rules changes designed to discourage fighting in collegiate football games and prevent fights from escalating.

The new rules call for substitutes and coaches who leave the bench to participate in a fight or who join a fight that occurs in their bench area to be ejected from the game and suspended for the next game.

In addition, players, who fight while participating in game action will be ineligible to participate for the remainder of the half in which the fight occurs and in their team's next half of competition. Thus, a player who is ejected for fighting while he is on the field during the second half will be suspended through the first half to his team's next game.

The rules committee condemned the fighting that marred several high-profile games last season, and was very concerned about the effect it had on the image of the sport. At the same time, the group recognized that football is a rugged contact sport that rewards a level of sustained aggressivness unseen in any other game. Therefore, the committee felt it was appropriate to deal more harshly with individuals who start or join fights when they are not actually involved in play than with players who are reacting to intense competition.

However, the committee had no tolerance for repeat offenders. The group approved a season-long suspension for any individual disqualified for fighting a second time in one season.

The committee also voted to extend the jurisdiction of officials from five minutes before game time to one hour before game time. All team members (including coaches) who participate in a fight before the game or during halftime, when they are not required to be in their team area, will be ineligible to participate in their team's next two halves of competition.

The committee also asked conferences to stress to their officiating crews the importance of monitoring the field during pregame activities, when exchanges between players can ignite tempers and set the tone for later behavior.

In other actions, the committee voted to:

*Adopt a set of test standards that establish maximum levels of stickiness for football gloves

*Require jerseys and undershirts to be tucked into the pants if they extend below the top of the pants

* Require jerseys to be long enough to reach the top of the pants and be tucked in if longer, and have no exposed sizing, garment-care of other non-logo labels. These rules will be effective in 1996.

*Eliminate the rule requiring the receiving team to have at least five men within five yards of their restraining line on kickoffs. The restraining line is 10 yards beyond the spot of the kick (i.e., the 45-yard line, unless moved by penalty).

*Require a pass to be catchable in order for an offensive player to be charged with offensive pass interference.

*Requires officials to signal "personal foul" in addition to the signal for kick-catch interference when contact with a potential kick receiver results in a 15-yard penalty.

*Allow only voice communication to be received in the team area for coaching purposes. In other words, no fax machines on the sideline to diagram plays or transmit photos.

* Allow the intermission between halves to be shortened if playing time is shortened because of darkness or other hazardous circumstances.

The NCAA does not want to discourage aggressive, clean hitting, but there are now stiff penalties in place in regards to fighting.

STILL SOLID AS THE ROCK

IPTAY had another record breaking year in 1993-94, surpassing the $6 million mark for the first time.

Traditions are something that don't happen overnight, they evolve over a number of years. One tradition at Clemson that is going strong and heading into its 61st year is IPTAY. The IPTAY Scholarship Foundation, is known throughout the country for its faithful and generous contributions by its supporters. A recent USA Today article called IPTAY the best-known organization of its kind in the nation. The article noted that at a time when college athletic costs are rising IPTAY continues to lead the way in supporting athletic scholarships at Clemson. IPTAY plays a major role in ensuring that all 19 of the varsity sports at Clemson are given the maximum amount of scholarships allowed by the NCAA.

IPTAY completed another record breaking year in 1993-94 when it went over the $6 million mark for the first time. The total number of members reached over 18,000. The Tiger Cub Club was also introduced for the first time, giving Clemson fans from birth to age 22 a chance to become involved in Tiger athletics.

Thanks to this support on the field, Clemson enjoyed another banner year in 1993-94. The program ranked 16th among all-around programs in the nation according to the Sears NACDA rankings, and had nine teams ranked among the top 25 in the respective final rankings. Clemson was especially successful in the Spring when the baseball, golf and track teams were all ranked among the top 11 in the nation. Clemson's traditional sports of football, basketball and baseball were also successful. Clemson and Florida were the only teams in the nation to win at least nine football games, 18 basketball games and 36 baseball games.

It was also a banner year academically. Soccer goal keeper Jaro Zawislan was the recipient of the ACC's Jim Weaver Award as one of the outstanding all-around student-athletes in the league. In the Spring semester of 1994, 43 student athletes were on the dean's list and 14 had a perfect 4.0. Tiger football player Warren Forney was the recipient of Clemson's Algernon Sydney-Sullivan Award, which is given to a Clemson student for outstanding service to others.

IPTAY is recognized as one of the oldest, largest and most successful athletic fundraising organizations in America. IPTAY was the first athletic fundraising organization in the country to top the two, three, four, and five-million dollar marks in annual donations.

In 1934, Dr. Rupert Fike founded IPTAY with a very simple purpose in mind: IPTAY provides funds for athletic scholarships. Since 1934 IPTAY has certainly met Fike's goal, providing scholarships for over 5,000 student-athletes, trainers, and managers.

IPTAY currently provides the funds for tutorial programs staffed by trained academic advisors, assisted by graduate and undergraduate students. This support is intended to ensure that all student-athletes are given the opportunity to earn their degree while participating in athletics.

IPTAY donors have also played an intricate role in the "Campaign for Clemson", a long range fund-raising project of the University. The University's original goal of 62 million dollars was surpassed with the next goal of 78 million also being surpassed in the campaign that ended on June 30, 1992. IPTAY provided three million dollars with ongoing opportunities for donors to be part of the Vickery Hall Academic Learning Center.

Vickery Hall, located on East Campus, is a 27,000 square foot facility that houses the tutoring and advising programs for student-athletes. The building contains various-sized study and tutoring rooms used for individual study as well as small group instruction.

The generous support of loyal donors to IPTAY has allowed the organization to go beyond the funding of athletic scholarships by providing the financial basis for many of the unparalled athletic facilities at Clemson.

Since 1978, IPTAY has provided the funding for $34 million of capital improvements in the area of athletics. These improvements include the expansion of the football stadium, the renovated baseball facility (Tiger Field), the outdoor track with new stadium facilities, the indoor tennis facility, the soccer stadium, the weight room, the new golf practice area, a new cross country course, and the IPTAY/Ticket office facility.

The facilities are among the best in the country, at least that must be the opinion of the NCAA. Over the last two years Clemson has played host to NCAA events in four different sports, including three in 1993-94.

IPTAY is also proud to provide the funding for Tiger Band. Each year IPTAY establishes financial support for travel, uniforms and equipment for this integral part of the Clemson athletic program.

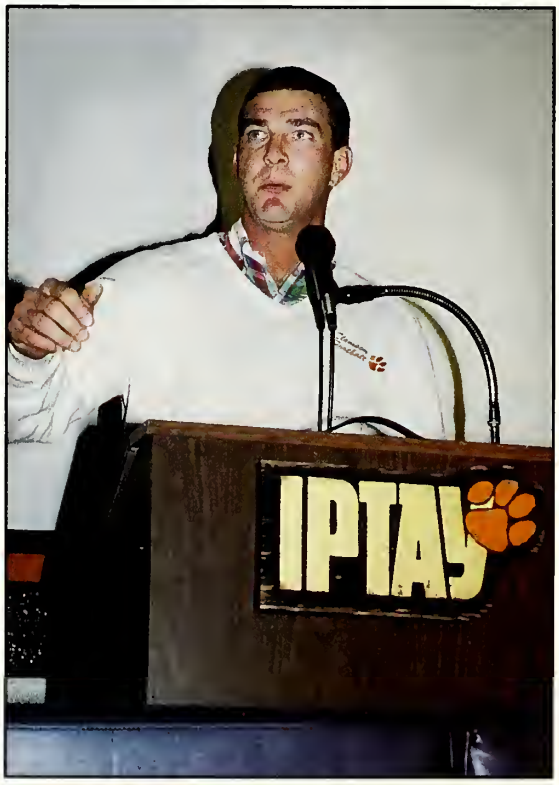
While IPTAY is primarily concerned with athletic fundraising, the mission of Clemson University has not been overlooked. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Endowment was created to help meet the need for more academic scholarships for non-athletes who are highly qualified academically. This scholarship endowment is funded by certain company gifts that are made as a result of employee contributions to IPTAY. In addition, the athletic department has made generous contributions to the endowment from athletic revenues.

The IPTAY Academic Fund is presently the largest scholarship endowment of its kind at Clemson providing $1.9 million in funds, currently benefitting more than 50 students. IPTAY's support extends to all of the student body.

The tremendous support of IPTAY is due, in large part, to the organizational makeup that allows donors to be as close to IPTAY as they are to their local IPTAY leadership. Each of South Carolina's 46 counties has an IPTAY County chairman, and every county is alloted an IPTAY representative for every 35 donors.

One important way IPTAY keeps in touch with its membership is the annual Clemson Club meeting held in April and May of each year. These meetings, which feature different coaches and administrators, are just one of the ways of making the local IPTAY members feel close to Clemson.

Clemson University will continue to be recognized and respected on the national level athletically and academically with the full support of IPTAY. IPTAY will continue to be successful because a loyal commitment to Clemson University is a way of life in the hearts of Clemson alumni and friends.



Tommy West spoke to a record 38 IPTAY meetings last spring. The organization is the reason Clemson offers a full complement of scholarships in each sport.

1995 Clemson Tiger Football Camps

The Clemson Tiger Football Camps are non-contact instructional camps. There are two camps to choose from. The Tiger Cub Camp is for boys in grades 4-8. The Tiger Camp is for boys in grades 9-12. Emergency Services

The Clemson University Athletic Department provides the following for your safety and emergency medical needs:

1. Advanced cardiac life-support stations in four locations (North stands, Upper North deck, South stands, Upper South deck). These units are staffed with skill-care nurses, physicians, cardiologists, internists, paramedics, and EMTs.
2. Mobile units of EMTs and paramedics are strategically located throughout the entire stadium.
3. Ambulances with life-support equipment are available in North stand and South stand areas and have prearranged routes for evacuation to local hospitals.

Learn to recognize these personnel and facilities.

WHAT TO DO IF EMERGENCIES ARISE:

Please step back and give the organized EMS personnel room to work. Well-intentioned attempts to help by untrained persons interfere with the efficiency of the EMS system. If you have basic or advanced training in specific life-support methods, make your qualifications known and offer your help. Untrained personnel can frequently be more harmful than helpful.

Most emergencies occurring at the stadium result from pre-existing medical conditions. Bring your medical identification card or wear medical identification jewelry. Moderation is the key with dress, food, beverage intake, and physical exertion. The two most frequent medical problems at football games are allergic reactions to insect stings and heart attacks.

INSECT STINGS:

Common at outdoor events. Treat immediately with ice and seek medical advice. If allergic, carry a kit from your physician with you.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A HEART ATTACK:

The symptoms of a heart attack vary, but the usual warning signs are:

1. Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest lasting for two minutes or more.
2. Pain spreading to the shoulders, neck, jaw, arms, or back.
3. Dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea, and/or shortness of breath.

EXPECT A DENIAL

Frequently heart attack victims deny they are having a heart attack. The event is frightening or they don't want the embarrassment of a false alarm. Therefore, they delay getting help by ignoring their symptoms or rationalizing, "It's just indigestion."

Find out what's really wrong. Prompt response can dramatically increase chances of survival and recovery.

New therapies have been developed that can minimize heart damage and save lives if treatment begins within the first few hours of symptom onset. "Time is muscle." Get help or get to a hospital immediately.

Men's Soccer

Dr. I.M. Ibrahim's soccer team is ranked in the top 10 in every preseason poll thanks to a productive offense and an improved defense.

By Sam Blackman

Defense wins championships.

It's an old adage that Head Coach Dr. I.M. Ibrahim will stress this season to his 28th Clemson soccer team.

Clemson scored 95 goals last season and featured the nation's top two scorers in Jimmy Glenn (32 goals) and Wolde Harris (29 goals). What concerns Ibrahim, however, is that his defense gave up 28 goals and allowed three opponents to score three goals.

"We realize our defense was our Achilles heel last season," said Ibrahim. "We were so attack oriented as a team, we did not have what it took to defend the counterattack. We tried to improve in that respect in our recruiting efforts."

Clemson won the ACC regular season title in 1993, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament and finished the year with an 18-5-1 record overall. The Tigers also found themselves ranked fifth in the final ISAA poll and seventh in the final Soccer America listing.

Clemson returns nine starters from last year's team, including seven first or second-team All-ACC players. Half of Clemson's nationally ranked one-two scoring punch returns from a year ago. Glenn, after tying the school record for most goals scored with 32, has graduated. Harris the nation's second leading scorer with 29 goals returns. His total was the most ever for a Clemson sophomore. He is arguably the most outstanding transfer in Clemson history, regardless of sport.

"This team is destined to do well because we have a lot of excellent players. The chemistry we had last year is the best we ever had and it should continue this season. Talent and unity are so important. We have 10 national team players on the squad, which is an indication of having talent. If they can work and come together as a group, they can be a good team and could challenge for championships in 1994."

Clemson will be young and inexperienced in this goalkeeper area, as first-team All-ACC performer Jaro Zawislan has graduated. Clemson's all-time leader in saves (446), Zawislan had a 1.14 goals allowed average in 1993. He was named the ACC Tournament's MVP.

The Tigers have sophomore Graham Tull returning, but he did not see any action last year. However, in the spring, Ibrahim said Tull showed much improvement. "We lost a very good goalkeeper in Jaro Zawislan, but we have hopefully taken the steps to fill this hole as well as possible."

Matt Jordan is the Tigers' incoming freshman at this position. Jordan was on the United States U20 National team, and was a Parade All-American. "We added height with the addition of Jordan," Ibrahim said. "We feel we have talented goalkeepers. We have quickness and ability. Our goalkeepers also have very good range. We are going to have a good goalkeeper in the nets, although the lack of experience is a negative. The positive point is that we have the potential for excellence in this area."

Clemson has four starters returning on defense in Jamahl Green, Sylvan Bednar, Chris Eatough and Danny Care. Both Green and Care were second-team All-ACC selections last year.

"Again this is the area that concerns me the most," Ibrahim said. "We have two new candidates who will try to crack an already experienced lineup." The incoming freshmen include Justin Rose and Tony Williams. Both were Parade All-Americans in 1993. Williams may play as a back or as a midfielder.

"Rose is tall, athletic, and strong in the air," Ibrahim said. "He adds a new dimension in the center of the defense. He lacks experience, but his work rate and his ability will make up for his lack of experience."

The defense will also be strengthened by the return of Mark Kinch. "Mark Kinch may play in the defense. He took one year off and we are glad to have him back, as he was a top player for us in 1992. He will be a strong contender for a starting spot." Kinch scored eight goals and had four assists in 1992 as a freshman and started 17 games that season.

"We have all four starters back from last season," said Ibrahim of his defense. "However, I was not overjoyed by our defensive ability last season. I think we added experience and the new players fusing to the team will improve the squad. Two of the four players on defense are All-ACC players and I suspect we will be much improved in this area."

Clemson's midfield features six players who have played on various national teams during their careers. Headlining the midfielders are Miles Joseph and the Baba brothers, Nidal and Imad.

Joseph scored 11 goals and had 19 assists last season. His 19 assists led the ACC and tied a school record for most assists in a season. "Miles Joseph could play either at striker or at midfield," Ibrahim said. "The Baba brothers, Imad and Nidal, are very strong, and Rivers Guthrie should have his best year ever.

"Besides being very creative, we have become a lot tougher and stronger. I would say this will be the best offensive midfield in the country, and I want it to be the best defensive midfield as well."

Ibrahim expects Imad Baba to continue developing into a dominant player. "Imad was a young player last year, however, in the spring he quickly turned into a veteran, as he has participated on numerous National Teams. Everything he does is better than a year ago. We want him to be the dominant player in the ACC and the country."

Clemson has two strikers returning in Wolde Harris and Jeff Yenzer. Harris, a junior, was second in the nation last season with 29 goals. Yenzer, a sophomore, had four goals and started seven contests for the Tigers. He was also All-ACC Tournament a year ago.

Clemson added two freshmen to this position, Jody DeBruin and Bryan Sproviero. "Jody DeBruin holds all kinds of records at his high school. He was very impressive to the coaches on the U20 national team.

DeBruin was a 1993-94 Parade All-American and scored 43 career goals in high school. Sproviero was a regional team player and scored 27 goals during his senior season in high school.

Wolde Harris is the top returning goal scorer in the nation. He recorded 29 goals in 1993 when he helped Clemson to a Top 10 ranking.

Women's Soccer

By Sam Blackman

Clemson's Women's soccer team will begin its program tomorrow at North Carolina, the perennial NCAA Champion.

Head Coach Tracey Leone hopes to make the inaugural season of Clemson women's soccer into a unique beginning, taking advantage of an excellent recruiting class and a coaching staff with a strong success rate in building programs.

Her husband and assistant, Coach Ray Leone, has had experience at building programs at Berry College and at Creighton University. He led Berry to a national championship in 1987 after starting the program one year earlier. Tracey has experienced playing for multiple time defending national champion North Carolina, and for the United States National Team for four and one-half years, including the inaugural World Cup team in 1991.

Even though Clemson will be a "new team" on the block, Head Coach Tracey Leone is optimistic about the Lady Tigers.

"Our number-one concern for this team is for the players to blend together as a team and strive to have a winning season. We will stress to our players to play the best soccer they can. We have goals for this season, but we have longer-term goals for this first women's soccer class at Clemson.

"Within their time at Clemson we would like to go to the NCAA tournament and be competitive nationally. Our goals are very high. This first group will have a huge contribution to the direction of the program.

"We think this year is going to be special. We are bringing to Clemson some quality people—great soccer players and great people. We have been here for over a year in advance, which gave us more time to recruit and know our recruits and their abilities. It gave us time to put together the puzzle of starting a first-class program. We hope we will be further along than a typical first-year team."

Clemson has three candidates for the starting goalkeeper position as Meredith McCullen and Suzanne Putnam and Mandi Risden will vie for the role. "All three players are talented and have their special qualities," said Leone. "All three are quick, hard working and tenacious goalkeepers.

"Suzanne has good size and is very good in the air. She has a great work ethic. Meredith and Mandi are very quick and are good on the ground. All three are excited about coming in and competing against each other for the starting role. In a first-year program situation, the goalkeeper makes a big impact, especially in a conference like the ACC."

Clemson will be versatile in the back with a talented group of players. Beth Goetz, who will probably see time as a stopper or midfielder, was a junior college All-American. Melissa Mansberry scored 68 career goals in high school. Lissa Mansberry might see time in the back, midfield or forward positions. Cheri Hooper will bring one year of college experience into the Lady Tiger program, as she played and helped start the program at Indiana last season. Katie Barnett will also contribute to Clemson's defense.

"Angela Brames is an experienced player from the Florida Olympic Development program and the Town N' Country Heather Club. She can play anywhere in the back. Cheri Hooper is a transfer from Indiana, and she already has a year of college soccer under her belt. She understands what it takes to be a part of a new program.

"Beth Goetz is a transfer from Brevard Junior College and she will play either the stopper position or in the central midfield. Beth has good size and is a very good playmaker. Katie Barnett can play the stopper position, but she is comfortable playing any position in the back. She has incredible heart and desire and there is no substitute for that in soccer. Barnett also has a great mentality, which is important when playing in the back.

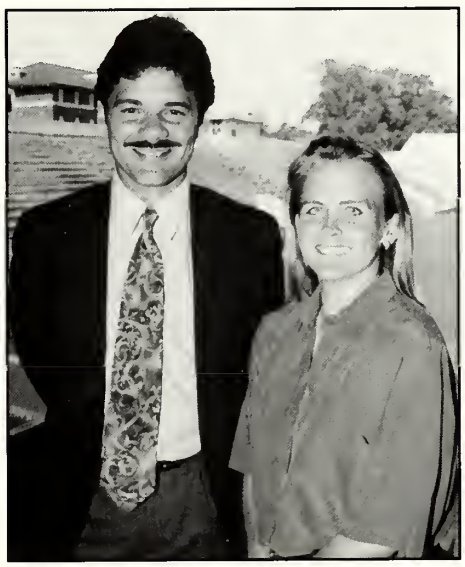
"We are extremely pleased with the players we have in the back, however we are not as deep as we would like to be in the terms of numbers. But players we have are very talented and versatile and they are going to be very tough to beat."

Clemson has a deep midfield with the signing of Parade All-American Carmie Landeen. Carmie is a regional ODP team and national pool player as a back or striker. She is also a three-year all-state player.

"Carmie is a top-notch player. She can play anywhere on the field and be a standout. She is very skillful and she has a tremendous work ethic.

Keri Nelson was a three-year all-state player and a regional ODP team and national pool player. "Keri Nelson will play in the midfield. She is an exciting player to watch and is extremely creative. She is great on the ball, and she combines incredibly well with other players. Keri loves to play the game and loves to train. She will be a tremendous player for us.

"Susan Trenery is a player who may see time in the back or in the midfield. She is versatile and athletic. She has an outstanding mentality, is very competitive, and loves challenges. Susan is an excellent player and a good leader.



The Leones have experience jump-starting collegiate soccer programs.

"Shannon Ryan will play either in the midfield or as a striker. She has a terrific sense of team both on and off the field. She is very skillful, and she will be one who will be exciting to watch develop. She has a great desire to learn. Julie Johnson is another player with good speed who is very athletic and very fluid and deceptive on the ball.

"Sheri Bueter is a 'slice and dice' type of player. She is a good finisher and possesses great speed. She could also be a striker. We have a lot of talent in the midfield. I think we will be very creative and will be fast at this position."

Clemson has seven players in the striker position, including Christie Szyman whose club team, Sparta, won the national championship with currrent Lady Tiger teammate Cheri Hooper in 1992.

"Christie Szyman is a very talented front runner and has regional team experience. She is a great target player and is very tactical. She understands different types of runs she needs to make and has a good sense of timing. She has a great work ethic and defensive presence, which will allow our team to win several balls in our attacking half.

Nikki Tompkins' club team won three Dallas Cup Championships and she was a two-time high school MVP. "Nikki Tompkins finds a way for her team to win. Nikki is very talented and athletic. She is an exciting, courageous player who is dangerous every time she touches the ball. Nikki is also a great player in the air.

"Tricia Barkman has a cannon for a shot with either foot. She is going to be a good target player. She is a lethal weapon in the box as far as creating and scoring goals. Tricia has a good mentality and likes challenges. She is a very hard working committed, and dedicated athlete.

"Like Lissa Mansberry, Stacy Hoyt is a naturally left-sided player. She has very good speed and gets behind the defense well. "Sheri Bueter is a consumate wing player. She has awesome speed and is a 'slice and dice' type player who carves the defense up. She creates several scoring chances for her self and others. She will make an impact for us as a wing forward or wing midfielder.

"Pia Amalfitano and Angela Farace will both bring experience for us up front. Pia was a Connecticut ODP player and a starter at Lafayette her first year. Angela played at Catonsville Community College for two years and was an All-American. Along with experience, both bring with them tremendous talent and work ethic. They will add to the excitement of our frontline. "

Overall, Leone is anxious for this season to begin, because it will be memorable.

"I think it is an exciting time for us and our players. This year will contain many firsts—the first players, the first team, the first game, the first goals, the first assists, the first wins. The players and coaches will remember this season for the rest of our lives, because we are making history. "

Andre Humphrey and Brian Dawkins are two reasons Clemson's special teams and secondary are ranked among the top 10 in the nation by various publications.

Levon Kirkland

By Tim Bourret

Former Tiger Levon Kirkland was the second leading tackler for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1993.

Levon Kirkland keeps on proving all the experts wrong. Be it Max Emfinger, Tom Lemming, SuperPrep, USA Today, The Sporting News, or any other high school recruiting analysis, they all failed to give Kirkland a mention. Even the state media missed the boat on Clemson's two-time All-American between 1988-91. Kirkland wasn't chosen to any first-team South Carolina all-state teams.

Today, Kirkland is a starting inside linebacker for the Pittsburgh Steelers, his third season in the league, his second as a starter. Last year he ranked second on the team in tackles with 103, and that does not include a team high 13 tackles in the playoffs. He started 12 games in 1993 and has played in 32 straight games in his first two seasons. The native of Lamar, SC is not only starting, he is calling the defensive signals for the AFC Central favorites.

One person who is not surprised at Kirkland's success is Clemson Head Football Coach Tommy West, Kirkland's position coach his first three years at Clemson. He could see Kirkland would be a success very early in his Clemson career.

"Our first scrimmage in 1987 is a good place to start when recalling Levon's career," said West, Clemson's outside linebacker coach between 1982-89. "Levon was a first-year freshman. Late in the scrimmage I looked up and saw Levon being escorted off the field by the collar by an official. At first, I thought he had said something and was thrown out. But, the official came over to me and said, 'he got his bell rung coach and he is still trying to play. Get him out of here.'

"That was Levon Kirkland. You could see in his eyes that he was out of it, but he still was trying to lineup and go full speed. It was unbelieveable, he didn't know where he was, but he was still out there playing."

From day one, Levon Kirkland and Clemson were a perfect fit. "I grew up in South Carolina and to play in Death Valley, well that was something special," said Kirkland from Pittsburgh a couple of weeks ago. "I just felt at home at Clemson, everything fit for my personality. "

It didn't take Kirkland long to make a home in the Clemson lineup, a home that would last four years. After red-shirting his freshman year (1987), Kirkland became a mainstay in the lineup in 1988. He was a key to Clemson's 10-2 season, as he ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 71, including 5.5 sacks and nine tackles for loss. He had 21 special teams tackles, seven more than any other Tiger, and was named the third best special teams player in the country prior to the 1989 season by The Sporting News.

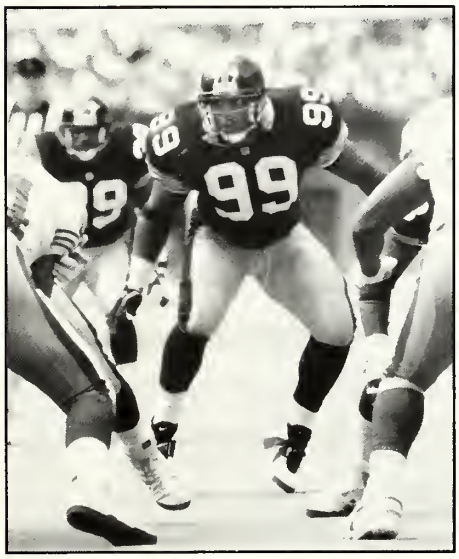
"He had a great game at Maryland that year," recalls West. "He turned the game around in the fourth quarter with an interception, a couple of tackles for loss and a caused fumble." Kirkland's line on that game was a career high 13 tackles, three tackles for loss, a sack, a 22-yard interception return and a caused fumble.

But, if you ask Kirkland about his Clemson years he will state that the 1989 Gator Bowl was a landmark game in his career. "I think the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia was a highlight of my Clemson career," said Kirkland. "The game was on ESPN against Major Harris, who had gotten a lot of attention for the Heisman that year and we had a dominant game defensively."

Kirkland failed to mention that he was the MVP of the contest, quite an accomplishment for any defensive player. He had nine tackles, a sack, a pass deflection, caused a key Harris fumble and flushed the Mountaineer signal caller out of the pocket three times.

That sterling performance to end his sophomore year brought considerable national attention for Kirkland. In two years he had gone from honorable mention all-state to preseason and then postseason All-American. He was a top 12 candidate for both the Butkus and Lombardi Awards over his career and is one of just 11 two-time All-Americans in Clemson history.

Kirkland has been gone for two seasons and many formidable Tigers have worn the orange and white since then, but Kirkland still ranks among the best in Clemson history. He is still fifth in career sacks with 19, sixth in tackles for loss with 40, sixth in caused fumbles with seven, second in recovered fumbles with seven, and 10th in total tackles with 273.



Kirkland didn't make all-state in high school, but is on his way to an all-pro career with the Steelers.

With all these accomplishments in hand, Kirkland was a second-round pick of the Steelers in the 1992 NFL draft. Despite all these accomplishments, Kirkland did not change his ways. "The NFL is like a business, just like anything else. I went out there (Pittsburgh practice) just like I did that first scrimmage at Clemson and went full speed. That has always been my attitude, give it all you've got full speed."

It was a big jump for Kirkland, but he made the club and has shown improvement every year, now to the point that he will be a key to the Steel City club. Kirkland also had to make the transition to a new coaching staff, but that was made easier by his Clemson experience. "In a lot of ways, Coach (Bill) Cowher is a lot like Coach West. Both are hard nosed and are great motivators. Coach West could really get our group (now fellow pros Wayne Simmons of Green Bay, Ashley Sheppard of Minnesota and John Johnson of Cincinnati) fired up, we thrived on that. Coach Cowher is a great motivator also. I will say, though that Coach West yelled at us more."

While pro football is a difficult transition in many ways, Kirkland also says the NFL experience has its advantages. "Pro football is a business, but you have more free time. I mean, in college you have class, meetings, practice, all kinds of other things, your day was packed. In that regard, pro football is easier. All you have to worry about is football."

Kirkland still worries about the books, however. He attended Clemson in the second semester last year and needs just one more course to earn his degree next spring or summer. Clemson's 1991 team had four first-team All-Americans (Jeb Flesch, Ed McDaniel, Rob Bodine and Kirkland), the only team in Clemson history with four first-team selections. When Kirkland gets that last course behind him, all four of those standout players will have their degrees. Kirkland's work ethic has obviously paid off in all areas. It is certainly a key to his success.

"If I had one message to the Clemson football team it would be to work hard. Nothing comes easy and you shouldn't assume anything is going to be easy. All you can ask of yourself is to work hard, even on a bad day. If you work through the bad day the good day is going to seem that much better. You are going to get knocked down, that is inevitable, but if you plug along, pay the price, it will always pay off in the long run."

WE'RE PLEASED

Today, in Clarendon County near upper Lake Marion, Laidlaw Environmental's commitment to the lasting glory of the natural world is taking wing.

In partnership with the South Carolina Waterfowl Association, we have restored a clay mine to create a premier Wetland Wildlife Education Management Center. Specially designed to showcase waterfowl in their own habitat, it will provide children and adults with a unique chance to better understand the beauty and responsibility of the world around them. And as home to a Clemson University study of plant and animal life on bottom-land hardwood forest, the center is a model for corporate environmental responsibility.

For all that changes in this world, one thing is certain: Nature must endure. At Laidlaw Environmental, we're doing our part to make that happen. For our state. For our children. For everyone.

Vickery Hall

Clemson has constructed the first building established solely for academic support for student athletes.

Clemson University's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the very best of facilities is evident in many ways. From the soaring upper decks of Memorial Stadium, to the state-of-the-art strength training facility, young men and women from all 19 of Clemson's varsity sports have the very best in facilities for training and competition. Vickery Hall is no exception, as the $3 million structure is as impressive aesthetically as any of the other facilities. But the importance of Vickery Hall to the Clemson University Athletic Department is not found in the structure itself, but in the many programs that the building houses.

Vickery Hall opened in the spring of 1991 and is the first facility in the nation originally constructed for the purposes of meeting the comprehensive needs of student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000-square-foot building is open throughout the day and into the evening to accommodate the extended schedules of student-athletes, and consolidates a variety of academic services for their use.

The philosophy behind Vickery Hall is to provide the Clemson student-athlete with a program that will meet his or her needs academically, in personal growth and development, and with career assistance. Vickery Hall is tangible evidence that, at Clemson, the athletic department has made a commitment to make the student-athlete's total experience a rewarding one, even after he or she enters the professional world.

"Vickery Hall is one of the most important facilities the Clemson University Athletic Department has ever built or will ever build. It makes a philosophical statement about the institutional commitment - giving our student-athletes the same opportunity to achieve their full potential academically that we give them athletically. We're very serious about that," said Athletic Director Bobby Robinson.

Given the time pressures of athletic participation and practice, student athletes face a difficult balancing act in trying to perform well both on the playing field and in the classroom. With respect to this, Clemson's Student-Athlete Enrichment Services (SAES), has provided one of the best academic support and advising programs in the nation over the last several years. The completion of Vickery Hall gives SAES an even greater opportunity to help student-athletes reach the short-term goal of graduation and the long-term goal of success in the world. The facility is open throughout the day and into the evening to accommodate the extended schedules of the student-athlete.

Vickery Hall is located in the mainstream of east campus, behind Jordan Hall at the top of Bryan Mall. The main entrance to the building is a 1,570-square foot reception/office area, comprised of five advisers' offices, two graduate student offices, and a conference room. Also located on the bottom floor is the office of Bill D'Andrea, the director of Clemson's student-athlete enrichment program.

Vickery Hall operates under the guidelines and policies of the university and the center's staff adheres strictly to the rules and ethical conduct standards of the university. In addition to the director, the staff also consists of six full-time advisers, two graduate assistants, and 50 tutors.

The building also boasts a 175-seat auditorium to be used for classes, team meetings, review sessions, and seminars. The various speakers and lecturers who come to work with Clemson student-athletes as part of the student-enrichment program also use this facility. The auditorium is equipped with a projection booth and state-of-the-art audio and video equipment and will be available to other campus groups when not in use by Student-Athlete Enrichment.

Another area of the main floor, the computer resources area, consists of a general computer tutoring room and a computer science tutoring room. The computer room contains 30 personal computers for hands-on computer tutoring, word processing and other general uses.

The 13,000-square-foot study and tutoring area on the second floor comprises the majority of the center. This area contains 11 classrooms and 28 tutorial rooms, including a large 65-seat study room and nine 20-seat study rooms, which are designed as classrooms with freestanding desks.

The Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Services has recognized the need for students to have access to high-quality computing equipment and has made a commitment to providing the student-athletes at Clemson with such equipment.

Located on the first floor of Vickery Hall is the Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Services Microcomputer Labratory. The lab is open six days a week, for 16 hours a day on Monday through Thursday.

The lab staff consists of mostly graduate students, many of whom are pursuing advanced degrees in computer science. Lab staff members are available for tutoring of any Computer Science course as well as the many management, engineering and business courses that deal with personal computers. Student-athletes may also arrange tutoring sessions outside normal lab hours any time during the school year.

Computers in the lab can reach many of the other machines on campus, including the NAS mainframe, and are in turn, connected to a world-wide internetwork, allowing lab machines to access computing resources throughout the world. This also allows access to lab resources from computers throughout the world.

The Dick Hendley Computer Room is one of many outstanding aspects of Vickery Hall, Clemson's state-of-the-art Academic Learning Center.

Tiger Band

by Brenda Rabon

Tiger Band kicks off the 99th season of Clemson Football this afternoon.

The excitement is present today as Clemson football begins its 99th season with the renewal of the oldest rivalry in Tiger sports history. The Furman Paladins were the Tigers first opponent in 1896. The Tigers won that contest in Greenville, 14-6. That began one of the South's most spirited traditions.

As Clemson football takes, "a new direction" under first-year head coach Tommy West, the Tiger Band prepares for a new season. Over the years, Tiger Band has become synonymous with Clemson athletics. The band remains an integral part of the athletic department, providing a generator of spirit for Tiger fans.

Two-hundred and fifteen Tiger Band members began rehearsals for today's game on Sunday, August 21. The Band followed a "two-a-day" and "three-a-day" practice schedule throughout the week to prepare for today's performance.

This fall marks Dr. Mark Hosler's third season as Marching Band Director. He came to Clemson from his alma mater, Ohio State University, where he served as Assistant Marching Band Director. He has been working his group just about as hard as Coach West has been working the Tiger gridders in preparation for the six home games and the five road contests in the regular season. Clemson is one of the few schools in the country that sends a band representation to every road game.

Tiger Band begins the 1994 season with the traditional pregame show. Performances include the "Orange Bowl March," "Tiger Rag," "Washington Post," "God Bless America," "Star-Spangled Banner," and the Clemson University Alma Mater.

Dotting the "i" today as apart of City of Clemson Day will be Phil Prince, acting President of Clemson University, and his wife Celeste. Prince is serving as university head until a permanent successor is appointed to succeed Dr. Max Lennon, who resigned in February.

Prince was one of the stars of Clemson's undefeated 1948 football team. His blocked punt against South Carolina in 1948 proved to be the key play of the game in the Tigers win that kept an undefeated season alive. He had a distinguished career with Milliken and American Express. He won the Clemson Medallion Award in 1989.

Also a part of today's ceremonies will be the awarding of the ACC's Outstanding Senior Scholarship Award. Mike Kauffman and Denise Massey will be the recipients. This honor is based on a student-athlete's GPA and performance throughout the year. Both athletes are members of the Tiger track program.

Clemson University will unveil the Ring of Honor this afternoon in Memorial Stadium. "Clemson's Memorial Stadium Ring of Honor is a tremendous opportunity for the athletic department to permanently recognize and honor former Tiger football players," said Clemson University Athletic Director Bobby Robinson. "There are a tremendous amount of former Clemson greats, and it will be difficult to decide which individuals should be placed among the Ring of Honor. With this in mind, we have established a committee charged with the task of nominating and selecting future recipients."

Clemson Alma Mater
Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness
Where the Tigers play
Here the sons of dear old Clemson,
Reign supreme alway.

Chorus
Dear old Clemson, we will triumph
And with all our might
That the Tigers' roar may echo
O'er the mountain height.

Two permanently retired football numbers and one legendary coach will be the charter members of Memorial Stadium's Ring of Honor. The jersey numbers include Steve Fuller's #4 and Banks McFadden's #66. Also, former Head Coach Frank Howard will be included as a charter member of the Ring of Honor. Howard coached the Tigers for 30 consecutive years (1940-69), the longest consecutive head coaching tenure in Division I college football history.

After the invocation is given, the team will assemble at the top of the hill as the band lines up playing "Sock It to 'Em." As the players rub the rock and excitement fills the air, Tiger Band Strikes up "Tiger Rag" and the most exciting 25 seconds in college football is underway.

Today's halftime show is entitled "Hooked on Classics." Tiger Band brings three orchestral masterworks from the concert hall to the football field. Selections include "Firebird Suite," "William Tell Overture," and "Symphony No. 9."

Tiger Band is led this year by Drum Majors Lawanda Curry, Tracy Dean, and Caroline Godbey. Both Curry and Godbey are returning to the drum major position from last year.

The Tiger Band staff includes Dr. Mark Hosler, marching band director, Dr. Rick Goodstein, director of university bands, Cheryl Hosler, Flag Line Instructor, and Hazel Martin, Twirler Instructor.

As another season of Clemson football begins, fans from far and near will gather for a day of football fun. Once again, Tiger Band is a spectacular part of this special day because of their commitment to Clemson's University's tradition of excellence.

The Tiger Band has been going through multiple practices just like Coach West's football team in preparation for the 1994 season.

Ed Glenn

By Chris Metzler

Clemson's senior tight end has already posted six perfect 4.0 GPA semesters in the classroom.

The old adage, "hard work and dedication does pay off," holds true for Clemson tight end Ed Glenn.

Four years ago freshman Ed Glenn decided to walk-on to the Clemson football team as a comparatively small tight end. "It was a dream to play for Clemson since I played little league football. Growing up in this area, I followed the Tigers. I grew up with Clemson around me all my life. I would come to a lot of the games as a kid and would dream of playing for the Tigers. After deciding to come to Clemson I wanted to walk-on because I did not ever want to think 'what if'. I knew that it would be a lot of work, but I decided to give it a try."

Since that day he has worked extremely hard in the weight room and on the practice field making himself a contributor to the Clemson Tiger football team.

"When I worked with him on the scout team in 1990 he had great work habits and was intelligent, but he was small for his position." said Clemson Tight ends Coach James Earle. "I never thought he would be big enough. I left for three years and when I came back in December (1993) he was bigger than I was. He obviously has continued to work very hard. He came in as a walk-on, and really wanted to play, so he put in the time and now he is in a position where he could start for Clemson. The majority of people who walk-on at a major university don't get to be in that opportunity. It shows the type of person he is."

"Ed is a very disciplined, thorough, and dedicated individual." said Clemson Strength Coach Gary Wade. "When he came to Clemson he weighed 200 pounds, but he has worked extremely hard and has never missed a workout during his entire career. He is the first in the weight room and the last to leave. He does everything in the required workout and then does some extra. You could give him the key to the weight room and he would work just as hard with or without coaches there. His hard work has paid off, as he is very strong, weighs 255 pounds and is in excellent shape. "

Glenn was named Co-Lifter-of-the-Year last fall. This award is given to a person who has shown dedication and hard work in strength training. What makes this award even more meaningful is that it is given to a player by his peers. "In my profession it is great to see a guy make strides and really help himself and Ed has really done that," said Wade.

Glenn, after seeing action in every game of 1993, enters this year as the second string tight end. "I have put in my time working hard in the weight room and on the practice field ,and it has paid off. I am only an injury or a position change away from starting. Starting would be something to be very proud of. I have had some great experiences and have made some good friends through football, which I will be able to take with me for life. Getting to start would just be icing on the cake for me. Catching a touchdown pass would be unbelievable. When I won Co-Lifter-of-the-Year it showed me that my teammates have recognized the time that I have put in to make myself better, and that means a lot to me. Now my goal is to play in every game and make a contribution."

Another person who recognized Glenn's work ethic is Clemson Head Coach Tommy West. "It is a big feat to go from walk-on to contributor at the Division I level. Number-one you must have great persistence, you cannot think that it will happen in just a year. It is going to take a considerable amount of work. We give all of our walk-ons an opportunity, but you have to prove that you're better than people on scholarship, and then you have to be somewhat fortunate that you're at a school that is in a situation where you get that opportunity at your position. It takes a tremendous amount of work and there is also some luck that is involved in it also.

"I have great respect for players who walk-on, pay their own way to school. Just playing football and practicing every day and the time that is put in it is hard enough. Then to pay to do it makes you special when you do it over a period of time. Ed Glenn has done everything that has been asked of him. He has been paying his own way to school, he has maintained his books, and just as important, he has maintained a very positive attitude. Those things are all good, but he has also contributed to the football team, which in my mind is why he has received a scholarship for this year. I don't look at it as giving him something-Ed Glenn earned it. All that I have done is reward him for what he has done. I am just glad that we're in a situation that we could do that."

Clemson's senior tight end may someday return to Death Valley in his life's work, but he won't be in a football uniform.

"When Coach West told me that I earned a scholarship it was such a great feeling! It was overwhelming. It is something tangible for me that shows that I have earned the respect of my teammates and coaches. Having a scholarship takes the financial pressure off my parents.

"My mother and father have been very influential in my life. They have given me the support that I needed to stick throughout the hard and frustrating times that I faced as a walk-on. They are the ones who supported me and believed in me the whole way. I cannot thank them enough for sticking it out. Now I am realizing that all the hard work and determination is paying off for me. "

What makes the scholarship even more important is that the money saved can be put aside for medical school. "You don't see too many football players with aspirations of becoming a doctor. I think that makes me unique. I try to keep completely dedicated to both academics and athletics so that I am successful with each.

"There are three lives to live in college. There are the social, academic and athletic life. You can only choose two of them to live because of the time required for each. After deciding to be an athlete, I could only choose between academic and social and I chose the academic life." This dedication in the classroom has paid off, as he has made a 4.0 grade point average during six different semesters and has a career grade point ratio over 3.9.

"Most football players try to continue their involvement in sports by playing at the next level or by becoming involved in coaching, but I want to be an orthopedic surgeon specializing in sports medicine. I look forward to having someone come to me with a problem and then being able to fix their problem and get them back to the play field. I think that helping people return to the same or better level of performance after I work with them would be very rewarding and satisfying. Helping people is how I hope to keep in contact with sports in the future."

Ed Glenn is one senior who does not plan on playing football past this year, but his involvement in the game could last a lifetime.

The Last Word

By Bob Bradley

Clemson's Ring of Honor will be unveiled this afternoon. Steve Fuller, Banks McFadden and Frank Howard are the initial inductees.

When the announcement was made that a 'Ring of Honor' would be established in Clemson Memorial Stadium, it seemed pretty logical whom the first three inductees would be.

One would be Steve Fuller, Clemson's all-time total offensive leader in yards gained. Another shoo-in was Banks McFadden, the school's most versatile athlete. And no such an honor could be handed out without Frank "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend" Howard. A number of other people could be tied for the fourth spot, but this will be filled in years to come.

Right now, there's not much argument on the Howard/McFadden/Fuller combo.

Fuller's name is all through the Clemson record books, most of the time listed in the top five names. One of his number one listings is in total yards gained (rushing and passing). This comes to 6,096 yards—over 500 yards more than the next person.

Steve, now in the real estate business at Hilton Head Island, also has the number one listing for touchdown responsibility—44—evenly divided in rushing and passing.

After Steve's first two years, when the team posted a 5-15-2 mark, things looked bleak for the Tigers, but the "Golden Years" returned in 1977.

The Tigers went to their first bowl in 18 years after that season, and the 1978 campaign (Steve's senior year) culminated with one of Clemson's greatest victories—a 17-15 win over Coach Woody Hayes' Ohio State team.

Records left on the books by the Spartanburg native will be shot at each season from now on. But there are things that will never be taken from the books because Steve was more than just a football player.

Academic All-ACC three times, ACC player-of-the-year twice, most valuable Clemson player twice, recipient of the Frank Howard Award twice (for achievement bringing honor to Clemson), Atlanta Touchdown Club Award as the top back in the south, winner of the Jim Weaver post-graduate scholarship, recipent of the NCAA Top Five Award (to the nation's top five senior student/athletes regardless of sport), NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipient and the list goes on and on.

On and on much like another athlete four decades earlier.

Banks McFadden was so skinny when he came to Clemson that Frank Howard thought about making him drink tomato juice and use him for a thermometer.

But Banks drifted from football to basketball to track and his name has even been found in a few Clemson baseball box scores.

He has the distinction of being named All-American the same calendar year in both football and basketball. And, because of his superiority in track, he was once given the title of 'America's most versatile athlete' by one of the nation's wire services.

A native of Great Falls, SC, Banks was one of the keys in the success of the 1939 grid team that suffered only one loss (7-6 to Tulane) on the way to the school's first post-season bowl game—the 1940 Cotton—which ended in a 6-3 win over Frank Leahy's great Boston College team. The Tigers finished 11th in the nation in the final poll, Clemson's first ever top 20 season.

Although the Eagles had their defense geared to stop McFadden's tailback wizardry, he spent a greater part of the afternoon running from sideline to sideline knockng down Charlie O'Rourke passes. He had four pass deflections on the day, 55 years later it is still just one off the Clemson single game record.

During Banks' junior season a year earlier, he led the Clemson basketball team to its only conference title ever with wins over North Carolina (44-43), Wake Forest (30-28), Davidson (49-33) and Maryland (39-27) for the championship, still Clemson's only postseason tournament title. Banks was named All-Southern three consecutive years and led the Clemson team in scoring the same three.

After basketball came track and Banks was equally at ease in this environment. In a dual meet one afternoon, he won five different events. He set state records in two hurdles races and in the broad jump in one meet. He was known in the trade as a 'one-man wrecking crew'.

In addition to his heroics on the field, the now 77-year-old gave just as much in his coaching chores. Banks was head basketball coach for 10 years, handled the freshmen footballers a spell, then was varsity track and cross country coach besides working with the defensive backs on the gridiron. Altogether, he was on the coaching staff 26 years, and then ran the intramural program 16 more years.

Just recently an announcement was made that the annex to the Jervey Athletic Center (which will house the football offices) will be named the Banks McFadden Building.

Both Fuller and McFadden have had their jersey number retired.

But Howard never had a number, however, he had a lot of other peoples number as witnessed by his 165 football victories. He coached the Tigers for 30 years still the longest consecutive Division I tenure at the same school in NCAA history.

With The Baron being voted this honor with Fuller and McFadden, this becomes the 17th hall, court and or ring of honor that Howard has been named to. He is proud of this recognition, but his chest bulges just a little more when he brags that 'three of my boys' have now been named university president.

He of course is referring to Robert C. Edwards, a manager on the 1931-32 teams; Walter T. Cox, Howard's former player, line coach and baseball coach; and Philip H. Prince, a member of the undefeated 1948 team and Gator Bowl champions, who is now serving as acting president.

Howard, at 85 and still active in daily office work, can look back on also being a charter member in both the Clemson and State of South Carolina Halls of Fame, as well as the National Football Hall of Fame, which was one of the last ones to come.

He once told me, "If that national hall of fame bunch doesn't elect me before I die, when it does come, tell'em I don't want it." That was his true feeling. And his feeling today? Proud to see his name and trademark hat placed on the facade of Memorial Stadium, looking down on the field named in his honor.
